Foreword

As Scheherazade told her thousand and one tales to the Sultan in the Arabian Nights, the staff has created the 1957 Tiger to recall the year's adventures for G.J.H.S.'ers.

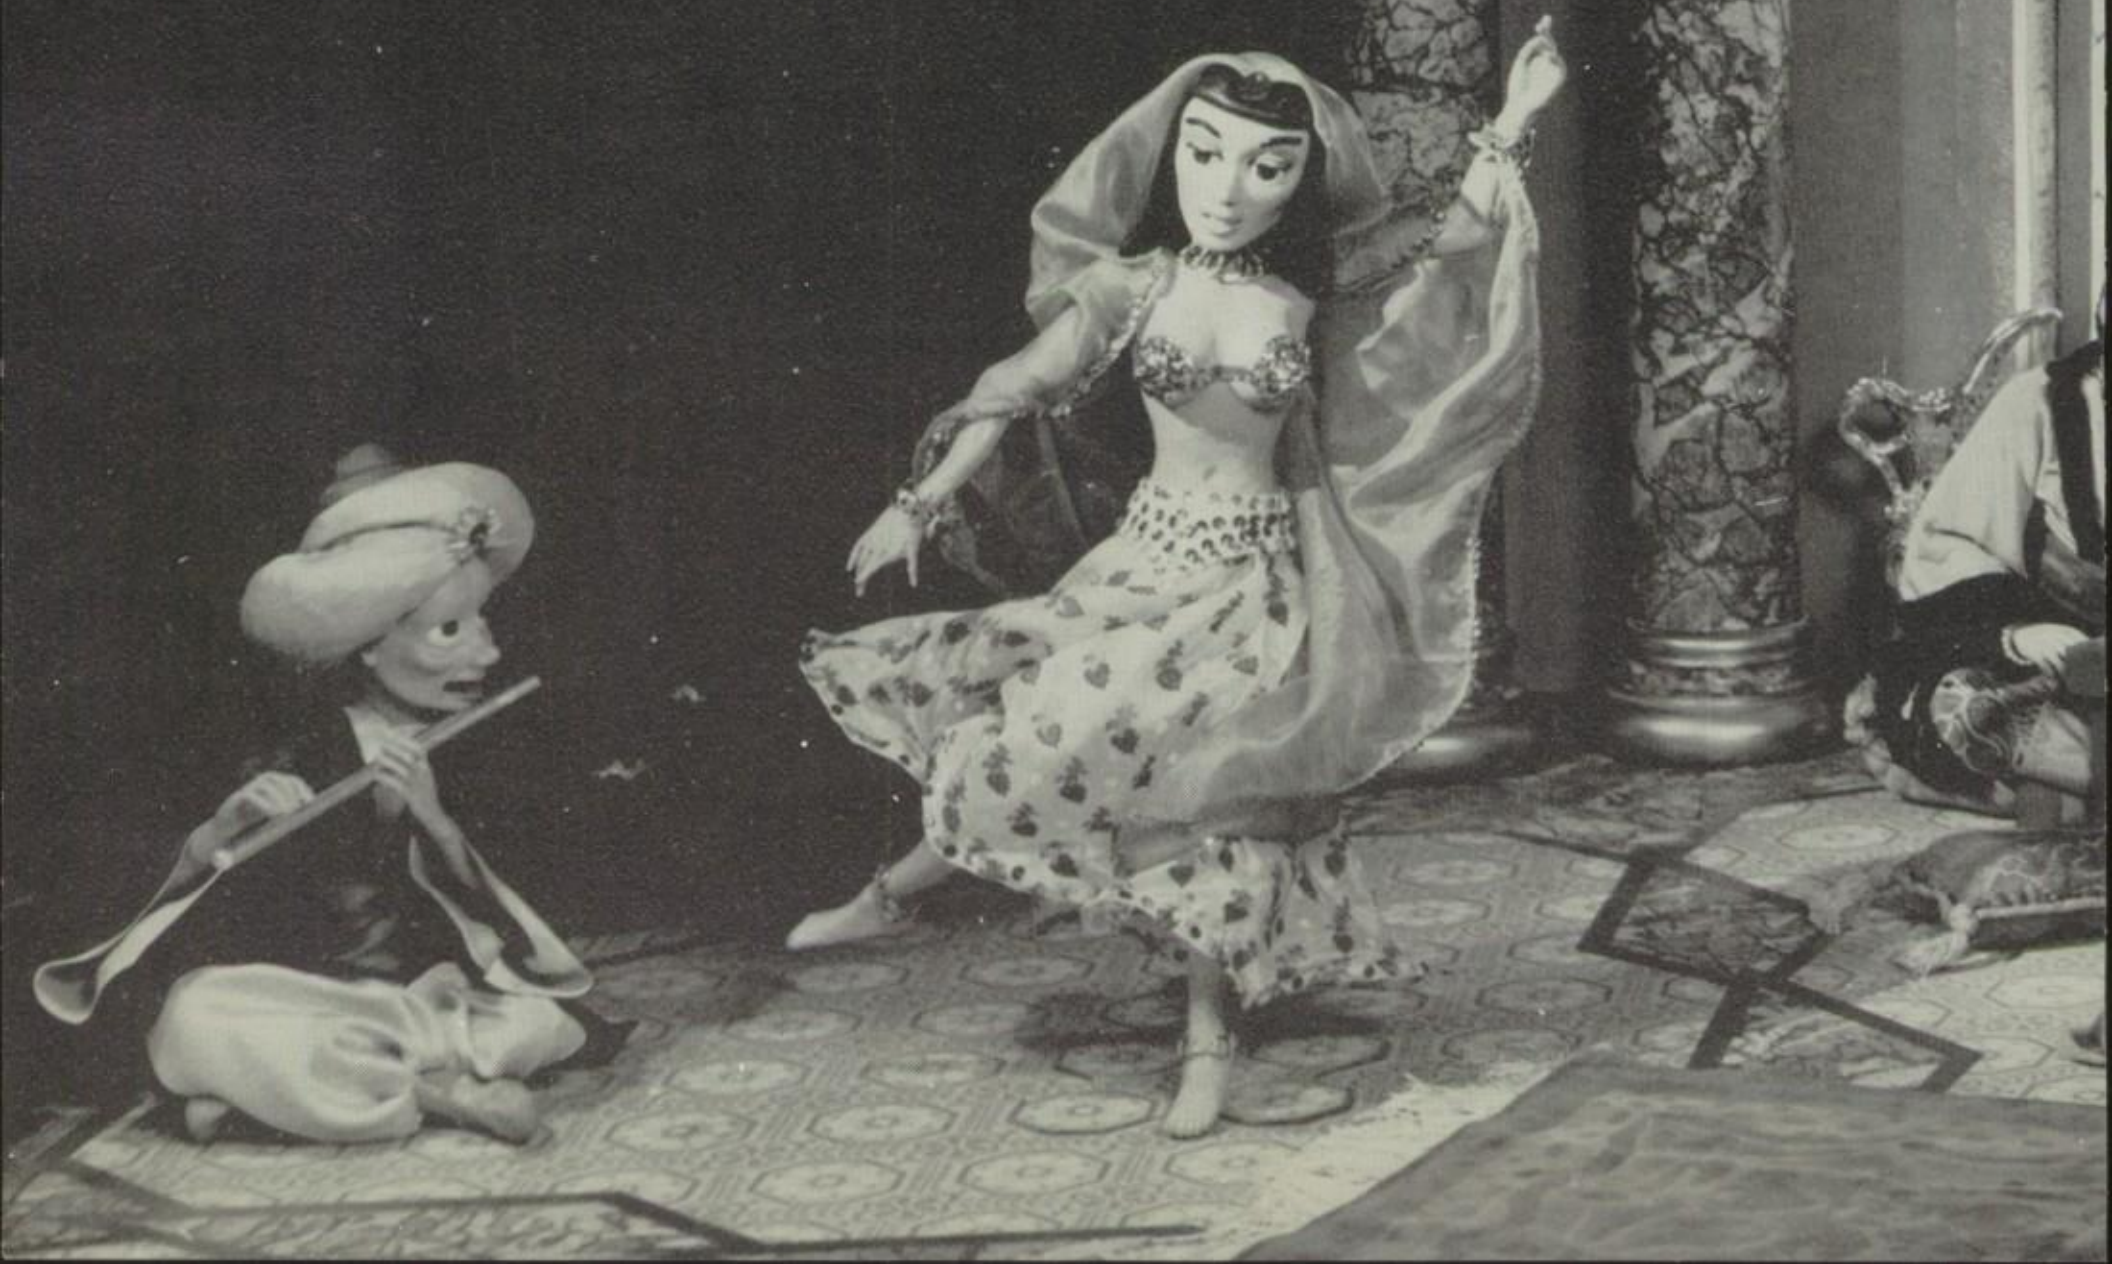

Dedication

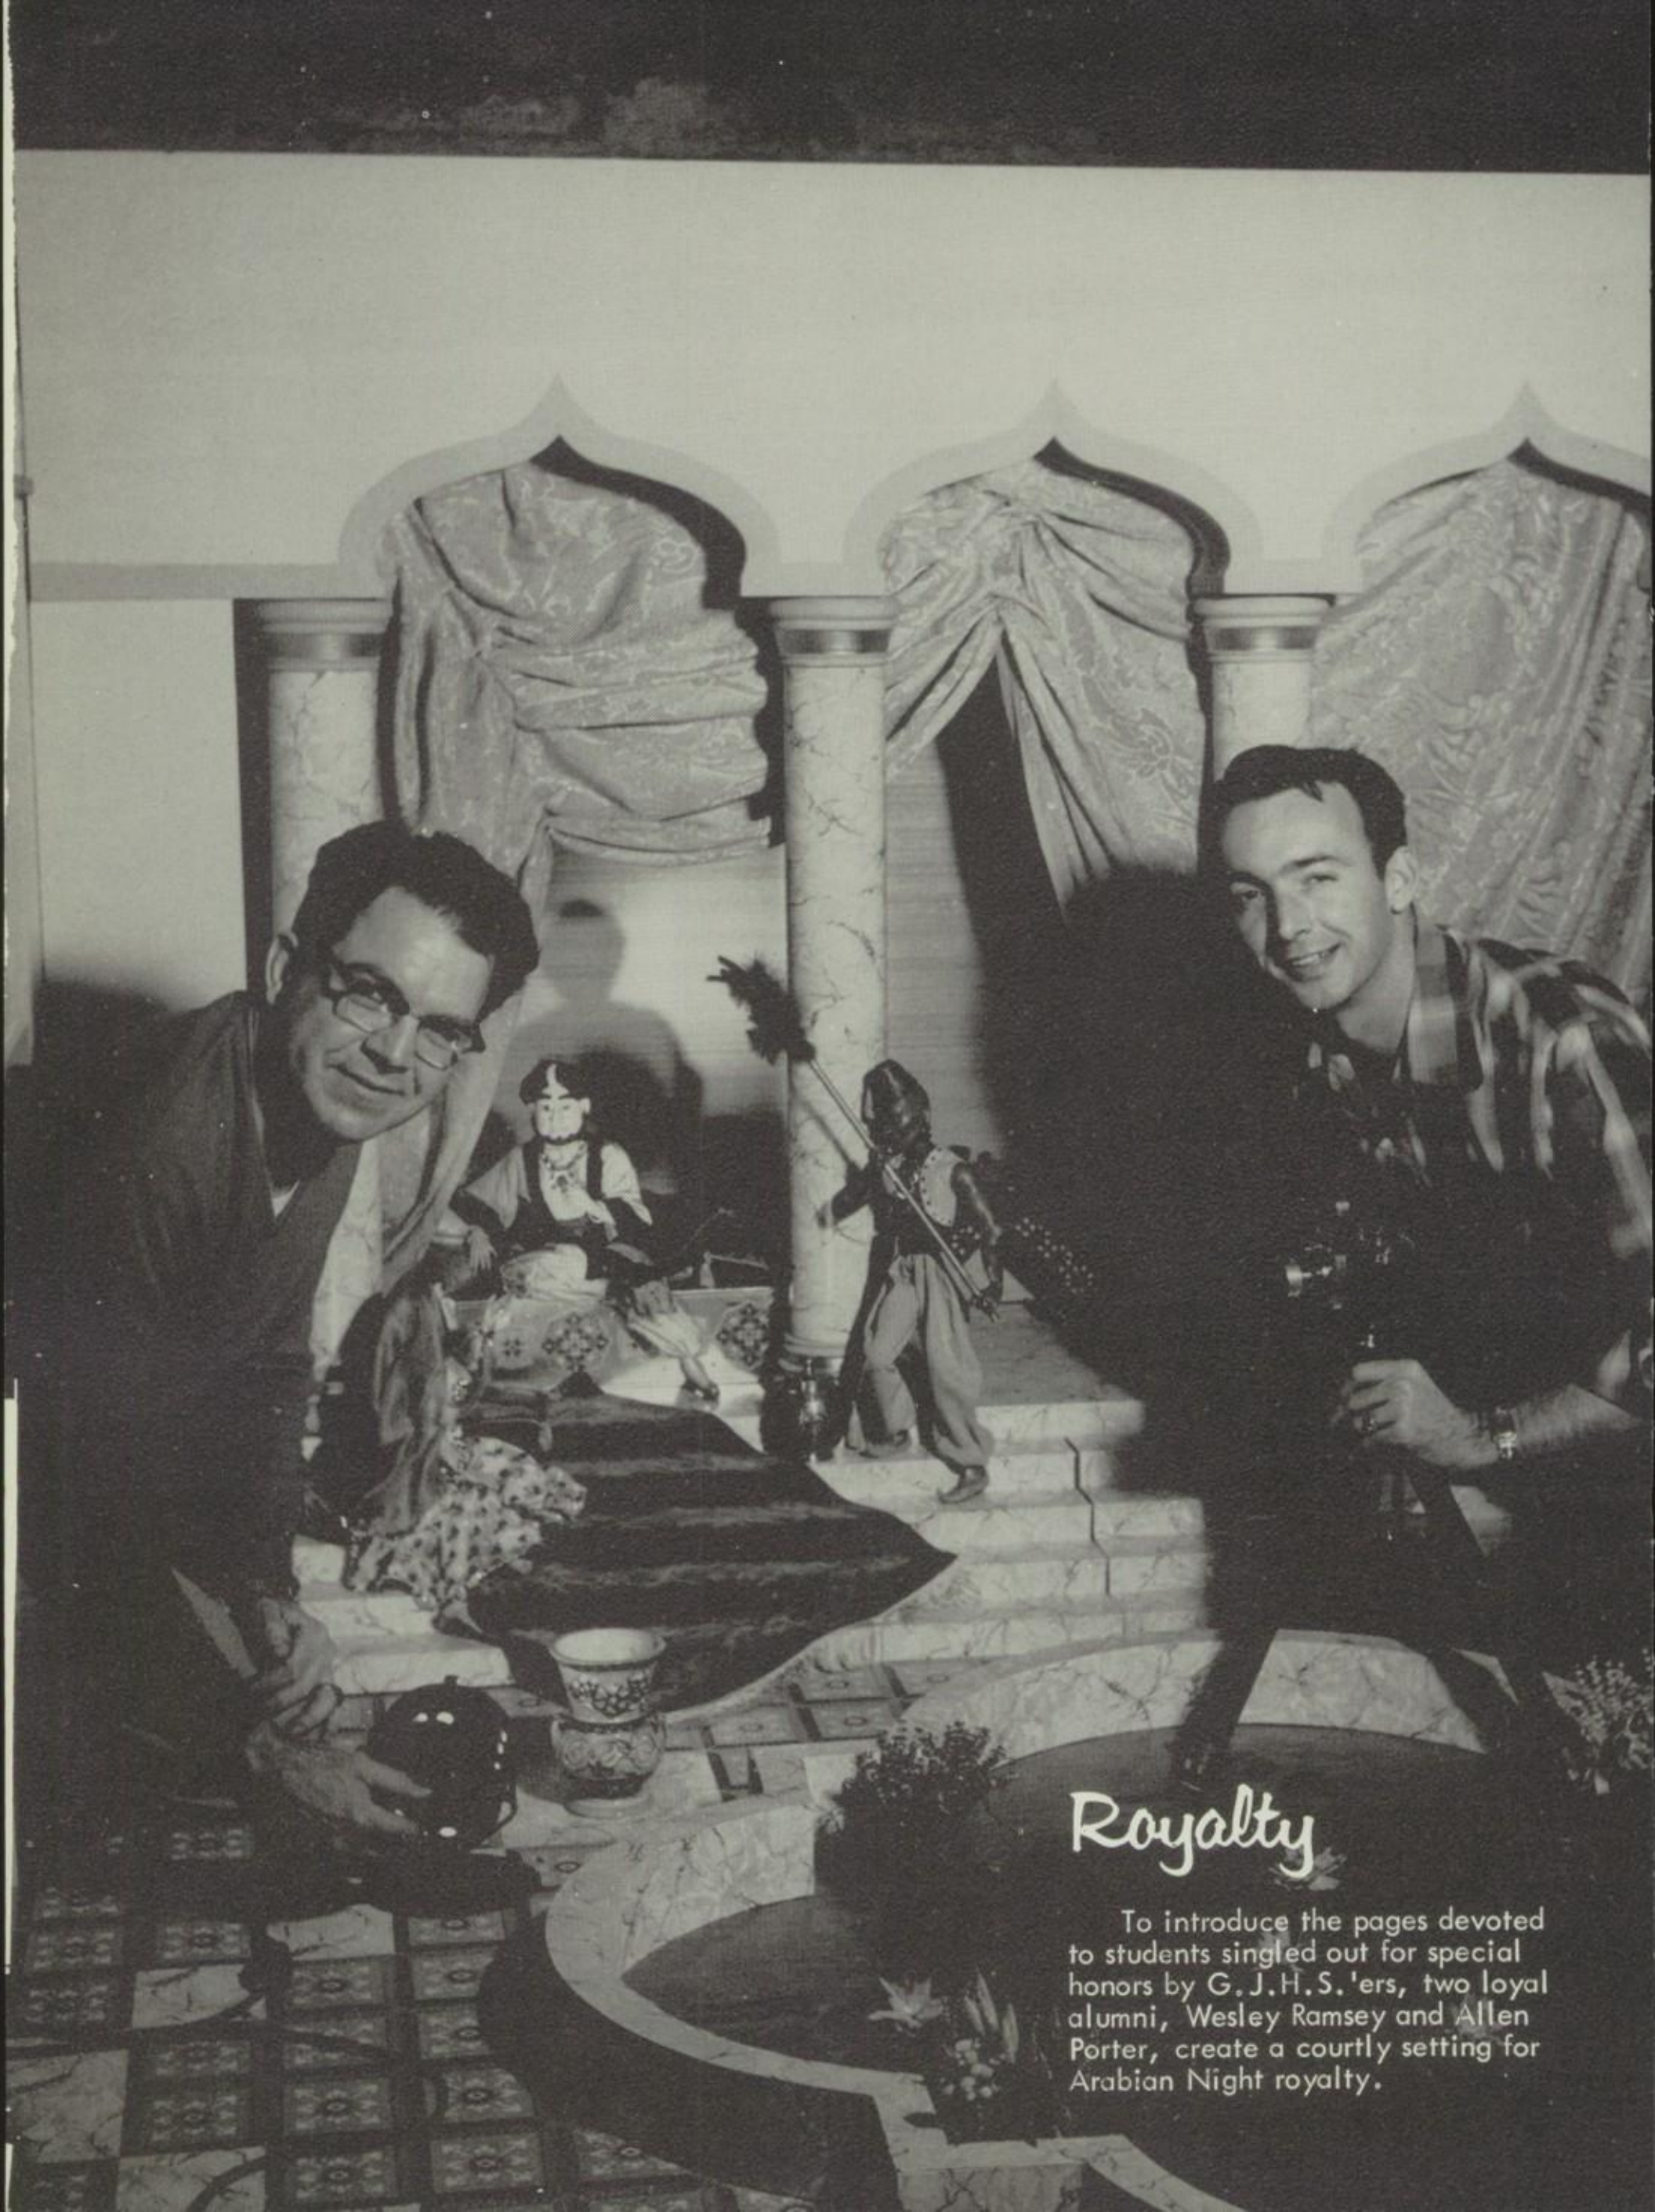

To today's Aladdins with their lamps of learning who have made education a modern-day adventure, the staff dedicates the 1957 Tiger.

Highlights

The Arabians held festivities with dancing girls and feasts to celebrate special occasions. Every year brings Tiger teenagers many highlights--moments forming memories always to be treasured.

Royalty

To introduce the pages devoted to students singled out for special honors by G.J.H.S.'ers, two loyal alumni, Wesley Ramsey and Allen Porter, create a courtly setting for Arabian Night royalty.

Special Events

For all you gals and gents
We have pictured here
This year's special events.

It is said that variety is the spice of life. The routine of everyday work has been spiced with the diversity of special events to give variation to this school year.

Penn-6500, senior float, captures first place.

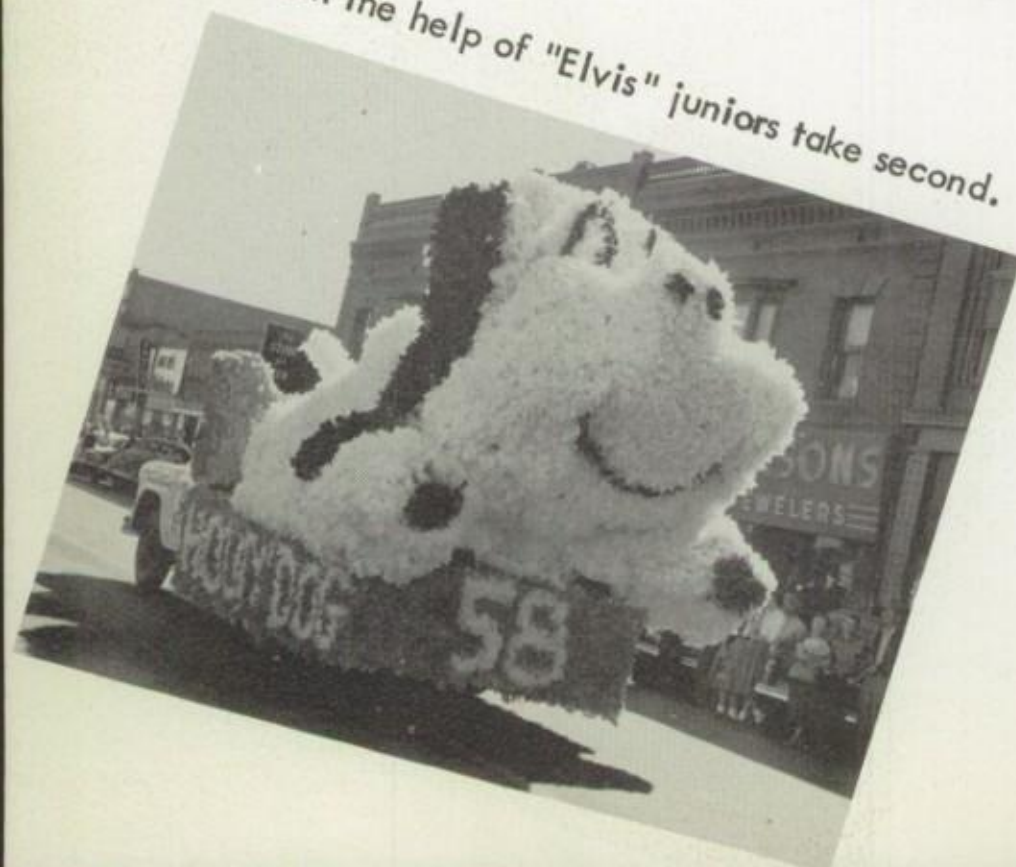

Jim Luke takes the ball for another Tiger touchdown.

Homecoming

Homecoming queen and attendants wait for the Royal kiss.

With the help of "Elvis" juniors take second.

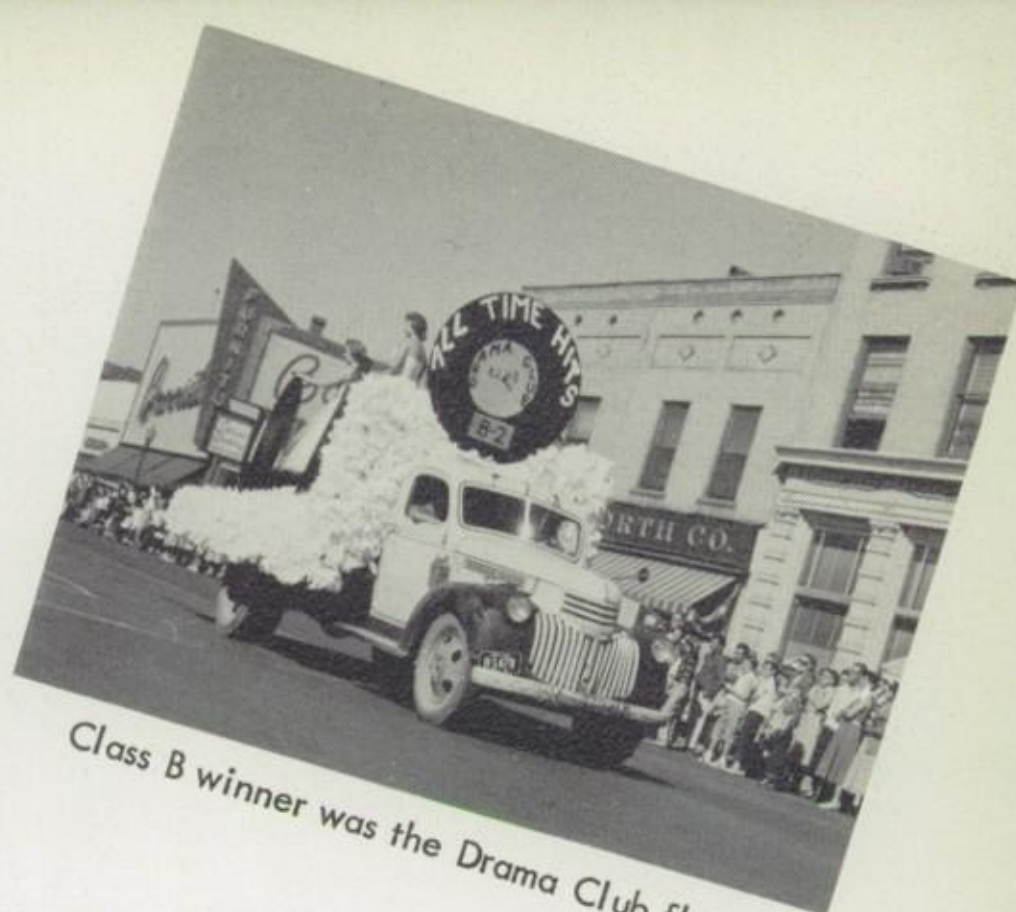

The seniors thought winning first place was well worth their effort.

Need more napkins???

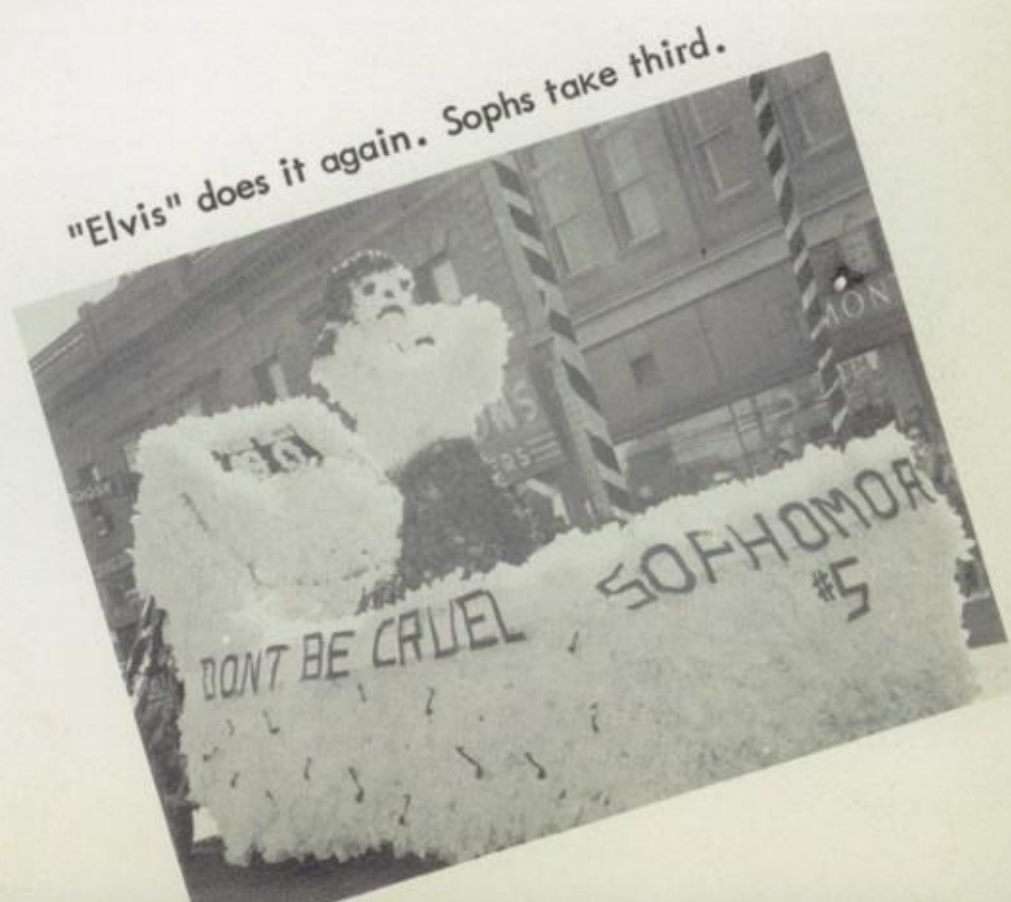

Class B winner was the Drama Club float.

Tigers, 40 - Pueblo Centennial, 0

Forward---march!

Hold "em" Tigers!

"Elvis" does it again. Sophs take third.

"School daze" are here again.

Those are pictures on the new SBA tickets?

The journalism conference brought students from outlying districts.

Jake conducts the orchestra in its first concert.

First year journalists work with Mary Louise on News Bureau reporting.

Speech clinic participants relax at their banquet.

Cars are checked for the economy run.

God bless our happy home.

Performance over, the junior class play cast relaxes.

Students learn aptitudes through the Kruder tests.

Who'll bid a dollar for a box of homemade fudge?

We get 'em one way or the other.

The banner girls wish all a Merry Christmas.

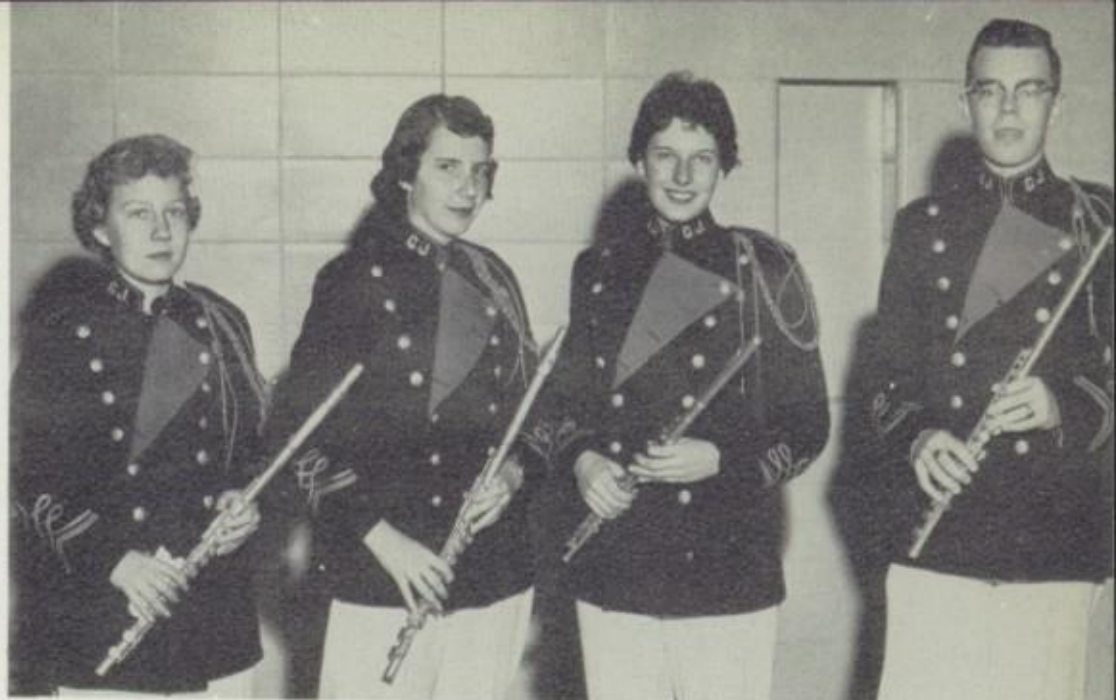

Preparing white Christmas baskets is fun for everyone.

Toy soldiers on parade.

Delegates get set for IRC state conference.

The flute quartet prepare for the Solo-Ensemble Contest.

After-school hours means work at St. Mary's for the Priscillas.

The mixed chorus sings for the Christmas assembly.

Those smiles are enough to cure any disease or pain.

Student projectionists in their off hours.

Try using your chopsticks!

A basket, a basket, boys!

Is that where we get sound?

We only want another touchdown, Doug.

We're from Junction, couldn't be prouder.

Did I see a ghost?

Lloyd Hale sings "We're Gonna Rip It Up" in the annual Blackouts.

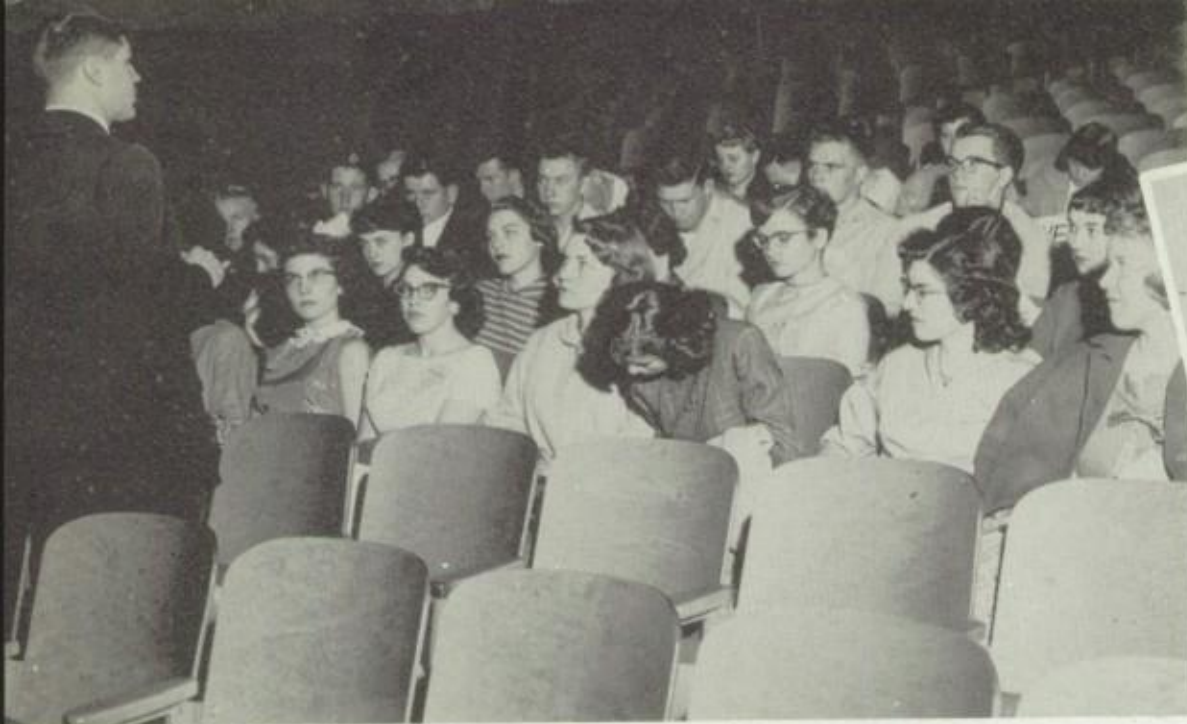

The band and banner girls perform for the halftime entertainment.

I'm hungry too!

Poor Madame Arcati!

Seniors prepare for college days. Wow!

Those actors!

Shall we dance?

"Here it is," brownies.

"Frankie and Johnny were lovers."

And then there was one.

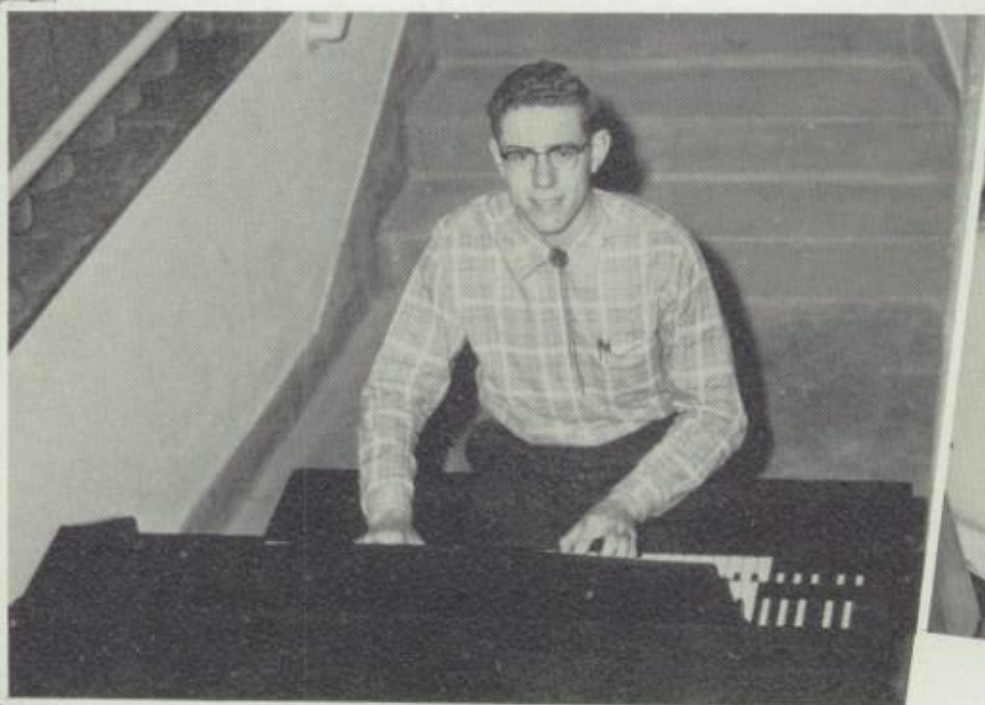

Future Tiger coeds looking good.

Be-Bopers have rhythm; they don't need to see.

Rockin' horse ran away!

Say, Mr. Organman, play a tune for me.

Say "cheese"?

Are you hungry by any means?

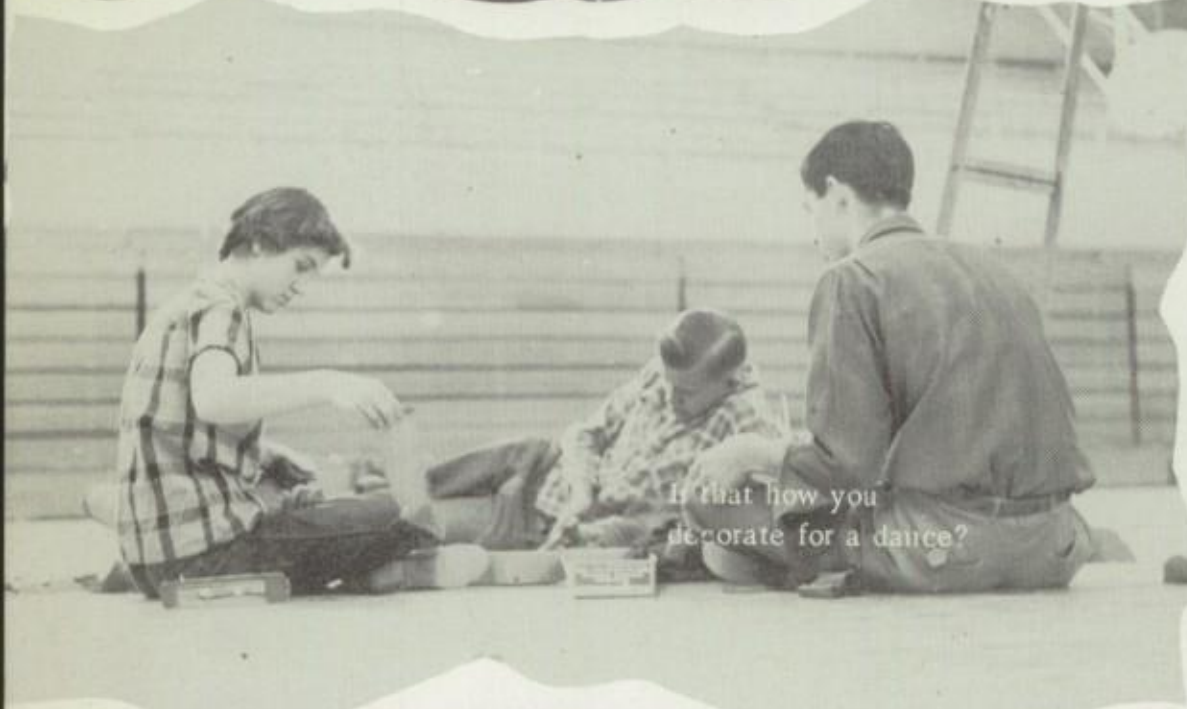

A group of G. J. H. S. 'ers prepare to present the Teens' News and Views.

And it's "Tiger Tales" coming to you from KEXO.

Is that how you decorate for a dance?

That is what I call intensified study.

Let me have those tweezers!

Prospective nurses visit the VA on Hospital Day.

You'd better think up a good excuse this time.

Think I'll live?

Mrs. Jimmy Basham adds water to the food mixer.

Preparing to serve vegetables, Mrs. Ell Grabher dips them from the large cooker.

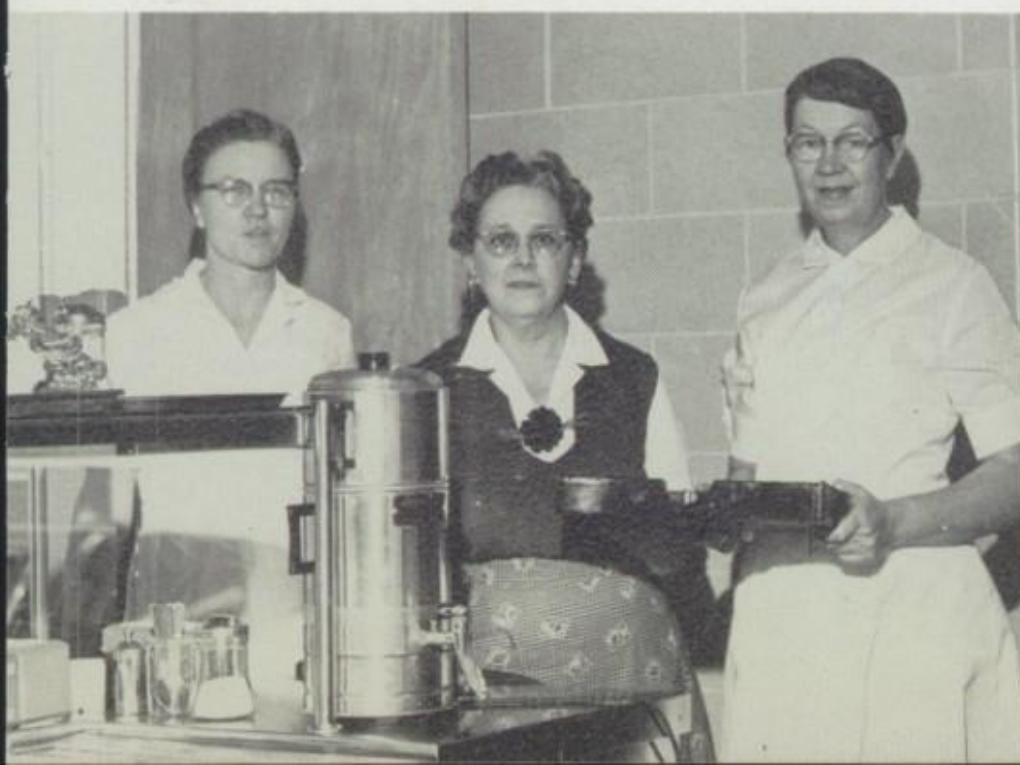

The tasty bread served in the cafeteria is prepared by Mrs. Marie Harvey.

Serving cafeteria style are Mrs. Iona Hines, Mrs. Marge Katzdom, Mrs. Imogene Arney.

Kitchen staff head is Mrs. LaVina Summers with Mrs. Ethel Bergner and Mrs. Cora Fulton as cashiers.

Mrs. Fern Bufford and Mrs. Velma Ashurst utilize the modern dish-washing facilities.

Classroom Faculty

Listening to Scheherazade's tales, members of the court symbolize today's youth securing an education to prepare them for life in a technological age.

George Bunte, Mrs. Ada Trissel, Joe Chamberlain, James Gormley, and Dr. Warren Shelledy, members of the Board of Education for School District #51, discuss the agenda for the meeting.

Administration

I.K. Boltz, Superintendent of Schools, works diligently for the whole district to better education for all the students in Mesa County Valley Schools. His leadership and vision have won recognition both for himself and the school system he heads.

ROBERT C. JAMES, Principal of G.J.H.S., carries the responsibility of the entire school. He is also director of secondary education for School District #51. Although his time is filled with the problems and functioning of the school he is always willing to be of service to any student. His deep concern for an adequate school program makes him an outstanding principal.

CLYDE GRANERE, Assistant Principal, helps in the planning and carrying out of all school activities. Serving also as counselor of boys, Mr. Granere spends much of his time in conferring with them on classes, choice of vocation and college placement. He is also sponsor of Boys' League and Student Council.

MRS. MARIA CAMERON finds that counseling with girls concerning schedules, vocational choices, and personal problems consumes a great deal of her time. Her busy schedule includes sponsoring Girls' League and Student Council and supervising the testing program.

Mrs. Marie Hopper is high school administrative secretary. She performs secretarial duties for the school and supervises the girls who assist in the office.

The students' office records are kept by Mrs. Betty Sasse, who works in the administration office. Mrs. Virginia Baillie, attendance clerk, checks and records all absences of students.

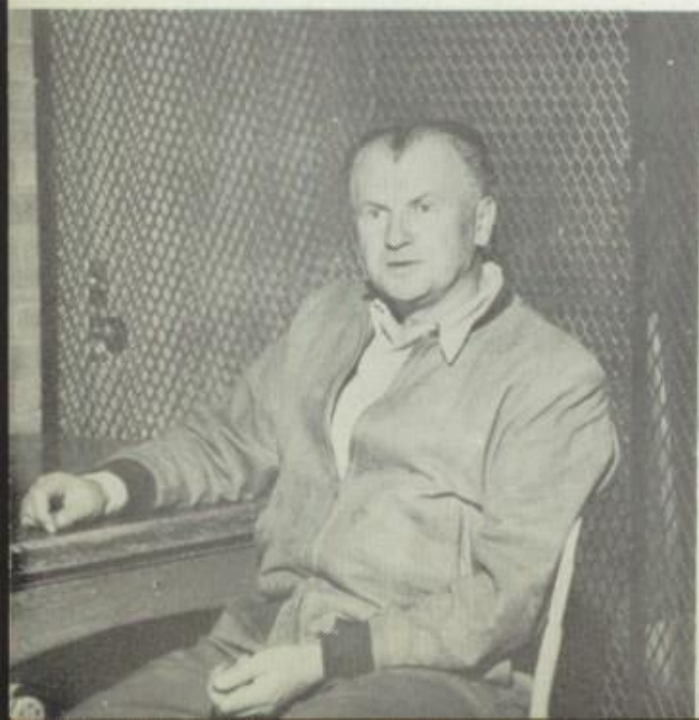

Miss Jean Wing, school nurse, helps keep the students of G.J.H.S. in good health and takes care of emergencies. School insurance, dental and hearing checks, and immunizations are all a part of her work.

Special Services

Evalds Kordons is in charge of building maintenance and works closely with his staff to keep the school clean and in good condition.

Dean Wortham and Anne Elbon familiarize themselves with the location of continents. With American History required for all juniors, World History, Government, Psychology and Sociology are other social studies courses offered.

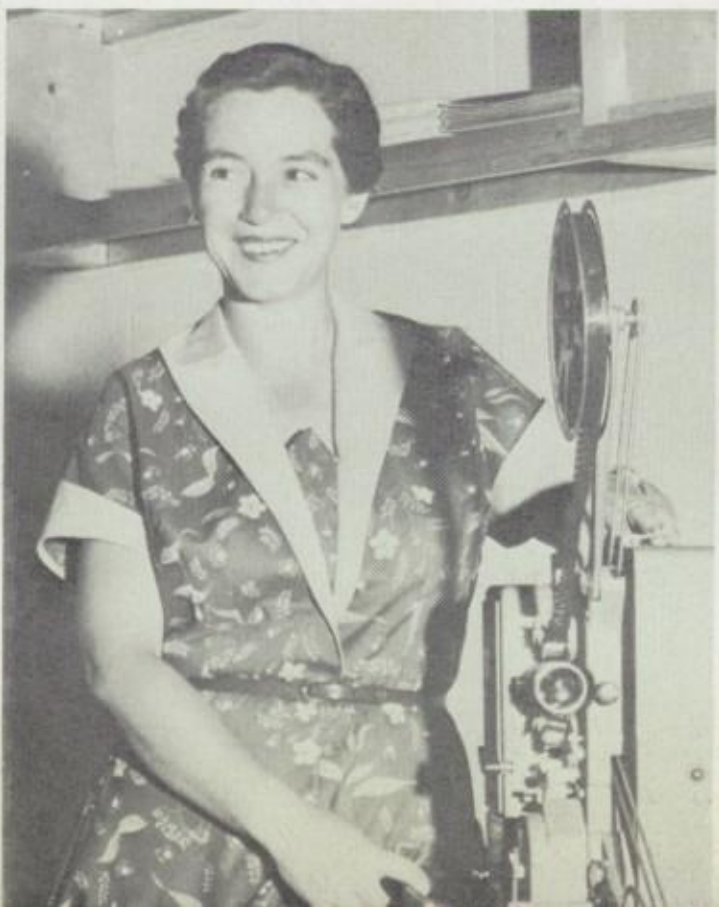

In Psychology, newly introduced this year, Rosemary Austin and Darrel Dodson examine ink blots which are used to show that people see things differently. Sociology is offered second semester.

Inaugurating the head boy and head girl system, Linda Haynie and Brant Powell worked hard to make the year successful. Linda was also active in Interschool and National Student Council. Brant Powell gained national recognition delivering the keynote address at the Western Slope Conference. Richard Lewis, Vice-President, also received high honors as President of the State Student Council. Completing the effective teamwork, Co-Secretaries, Lucy Calhoun and Pat Pitzer spent many hours planning S.B.A. activities.

Darrell Dodson, Ralph Ohm and Doug Sprague, clean-up committee, help keep the school and grounds in good order.

Chuck Hoppes and Dixie Kay Litsey plan and schedule assemblies.

SBA Committees

The committees, chosen by their chairmen who in turn were picked by the student body officers, worked on various projects for the welfare of GJHSers throughout the school term. They handled everything from the assemblies and dances to the concession stand and the budget.

Working with Richard Lewis, chairman, the dance committee provided many dances for G.J.H.S.ers.

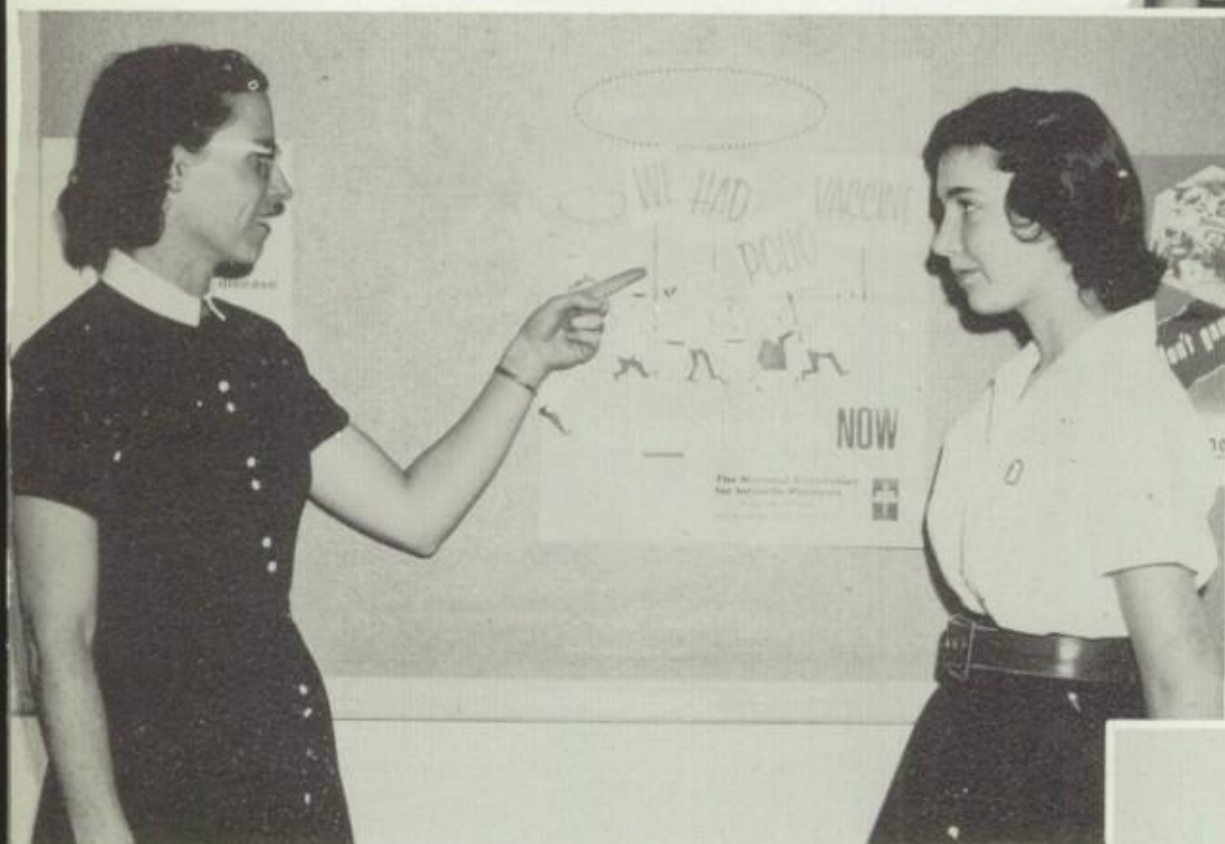

To make the halls interesting, informative and attractive, Stephanie Parker, Nancy Charvat, Nancy Moore, Carol Watson, Charlene Wilson and Larry Bratton plan and prepare the bulletin boards every two weeks.

John Hay, Joan Berneau, Bud Halldorson and Bob Madsen served as the student council public relations committee.

SBA Committees

Mrs. Jean Wing informs Ann Hodge concerning the importance of polio shots for good health.

Revising the constitution of G.J.H.S. are Alan Whittier, Tony Prinster, and Frank Venturo.

Larry Corn, JoAnn Raber, Roberta Pratt, Doug Hill, Jerene Hagie, Chuck Thomas, and Jim Dillard, members of the United Fund Drive committee, exceeded their $1000 goal with the support of G.J.H.S.ers.

The flag committee Larry Thompson and Phil Born raise and lower the flag each day. Members of the safety committee are Jack Peach Carol Ostrander, Dick Wells, and Ken Lowell.

Working on the art service committee this year were Stephanie Parker, Larry Bratton, Nancy Charvat, Raymond Turner, Anne Elbon, and Charlene Wilson.

SBA Committees

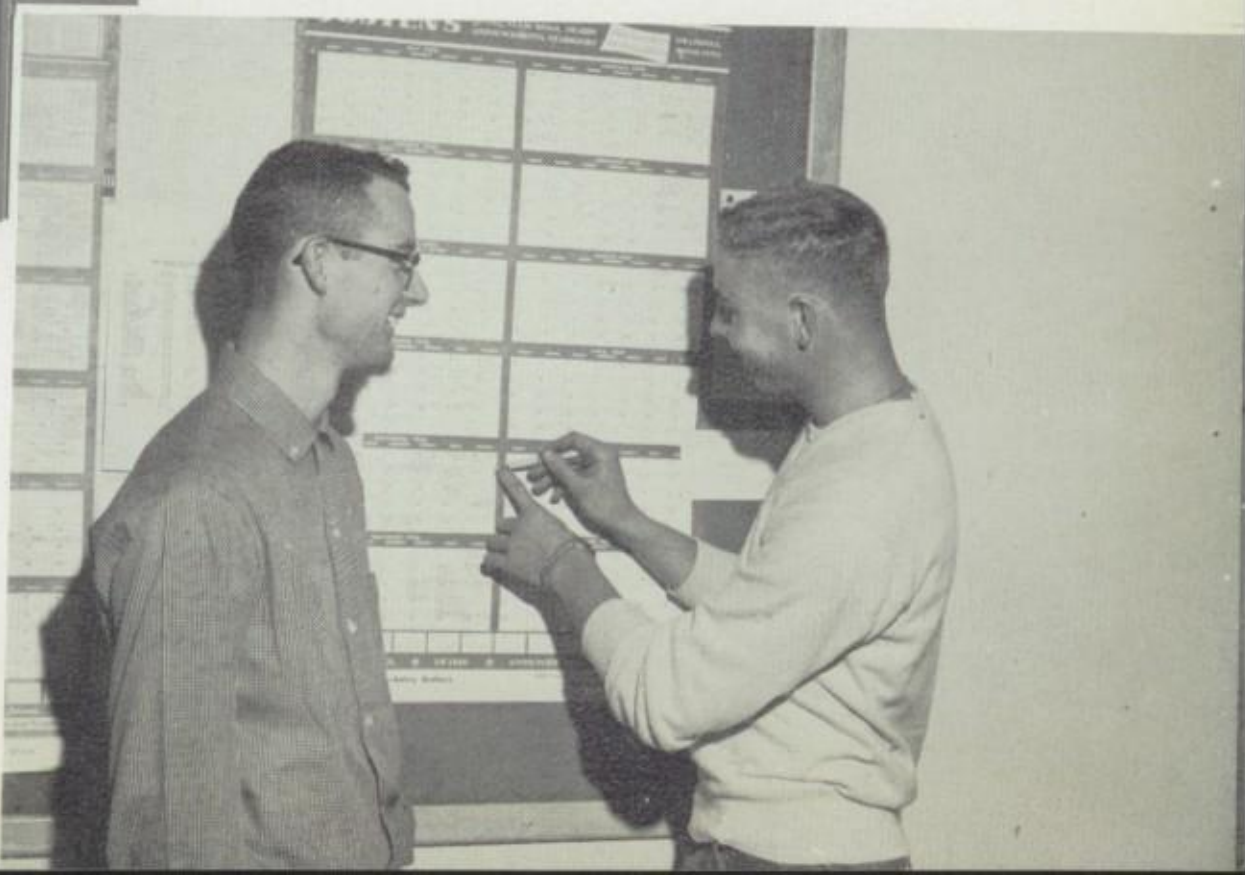

Shirley Anderson purchases after school refreshment from concession stand committee, Helen Sisac, Bob Youngberg, Walter Murch.

Denny Gordon, Jackie Harlan, and Carl Forstrom check over the school budget to make sure the funds are properly distributed.

Chuck Thomas and Bernard Turner are scheduling events for the 56-57 school year, a part of their work as the calendar committee.

Girls' League

As president of Girls League, peppy Linda Paige kept busy planning the many activities scheduled. Linda was also active in Tri-S, attended All-State band, and received the Good Citizenship Award. Joni Berneau, along with lots of piano accompanying for programs, assisted her. Roberta Pratt, who attended Girls State, efficiently kept records for the organization. Representing the sophomore class, pretty Twila Strong also helped keep the league moving. Twila was also sophomore homecoming attendant.

Teachers enjoyed the Big and Little Sister party also.

Here's a toast to all the sophomores and newcomers to G. J. H. S.

Girls League

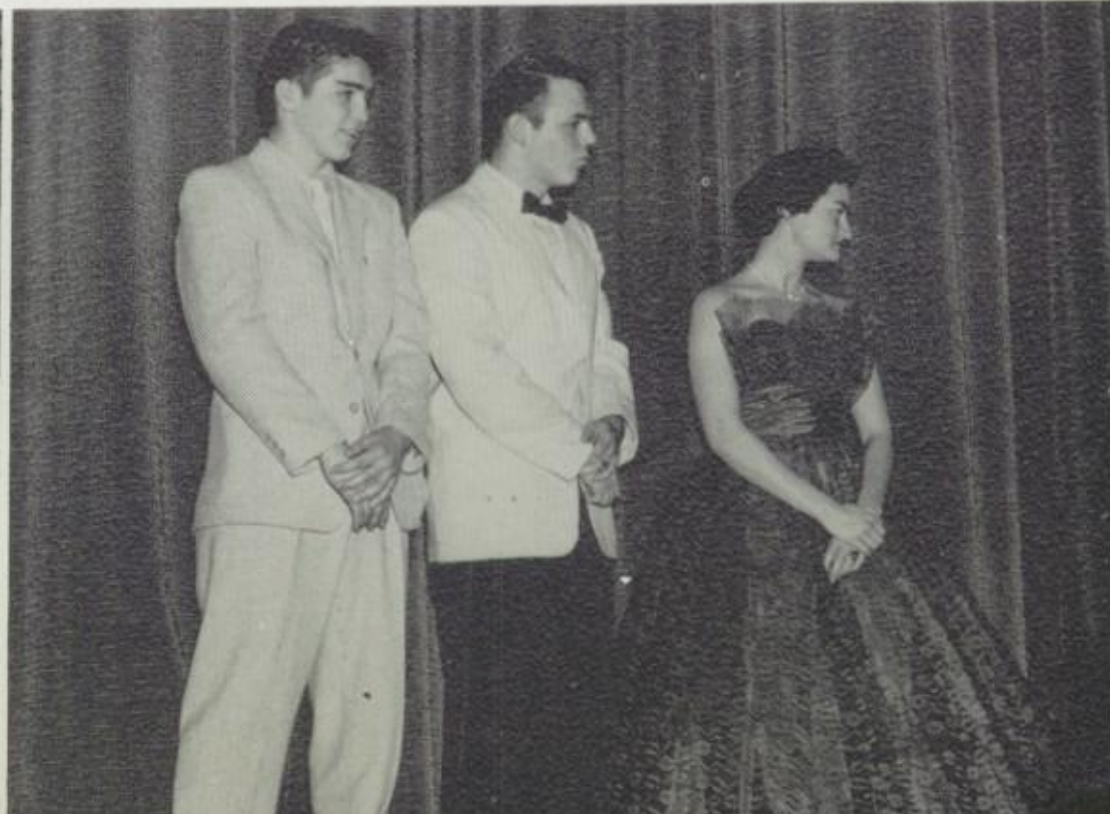

Every girl in high school is automatically a member of Girls League. During the year one of the major goals of the group was to include as many coeds as possible in committee work and to secure active participation in projects. Sponsored by Mrs. Maria Cameron, the girls enjoyed a varied program including several teas, the Big and Little Sister party, a talent show, Girls Week, and "Prayer for Peace" Sunday.

Boys' League

Through the combined efforts of the Boys League officers, the group participated in many activities. In addition to working hard for the league, Bill Peck, President, went to Boys State and was active in football and track. Sports-minded Tom Matlock,

Vice-President, and Dick McPeck, Secretary, kept busy assisting Bill with the plans. Completing the team of athletically-minded officers, Roger Granere represented the sophomore class.

Jim Mogenson, Lee Porter, Josh Holmes, Ralph Schmidt, Chuck Thomas, and Roger Hoback, active members of Boys League, make plans for a coming dance.

Boys League

Boys League sponsors a program promoting friendship and guidance. This year the customary wrestling and basketball assemblies and senior-faculty volleyball game better acquainted students with these sports and encouraged closer relationships with the faculty. Under the leadership of Clyde Granere, the league organized a "Howdy Gang" to acquaint new students with G.J.H.S. and carried out a program highlighted by a talent show.

Mike Warner, top-notch trumpet soloist, wins again in the annual Boys League assembly.

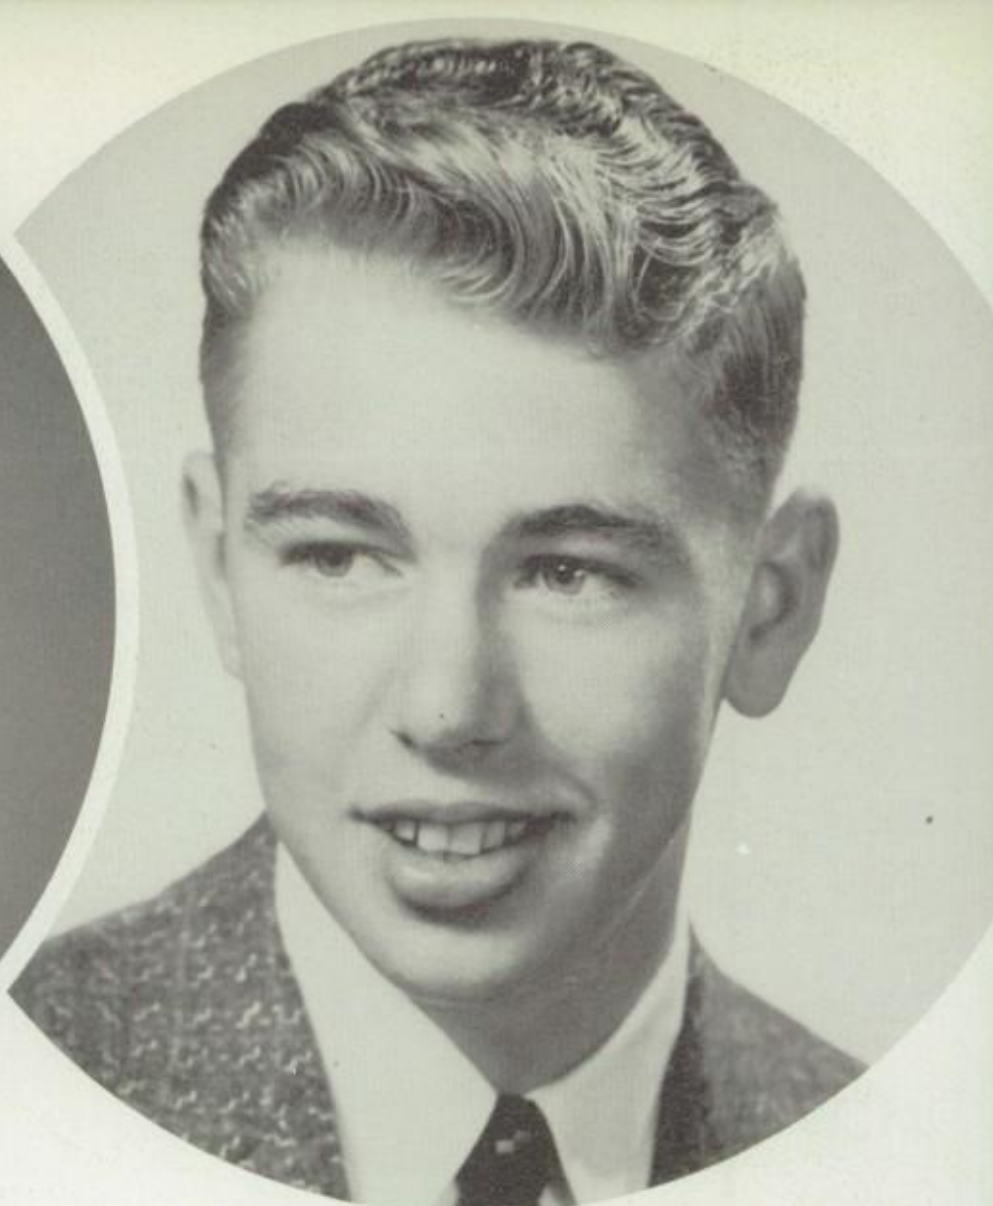

Ken Lowell, Gaylen Weaver, Gordon Miracle, Gerald Storey, and Leroy Cordova were chosen from the Boys League talent assembly to represent G. J. H. S. in an exchange assembly.

Kathy Fuoco and Nancy Morris, co-editors, plan new ideas for the 1957-'58 handbook.

The newly appointed handbook staff organizes information for publication.

Quill and Scroll officers, Doris Perryman, Darold Greene, Carlisle Douglas bring minutes up-to-date for the next Quill and Scroll meeting.

First year journalists examine their string books before submitting them in order to become Quill and Scroll members.

Quill and Scroll

The goal of every journalist is to become a member of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society. The aims of the club are to further interest in student publications, encourage creative effort, and improve journalistic standards. The group sponsored the Tiger Annual signing dance and the Recognition Banquet. Miss Lillian Larson is the adviser.

Marilyn Brady, Marilyn Hansen, Larry Goetz, and Toni Marshall, journalism students, pause to look at the Orange and Black.

Troupe one officers were Bud Halldorson, Jackie Harlan, and Yvonne Stocker.

Drama Club

Directed by Miss Irene Gray, Donald Brooks, and Ray Canaday, members of Drama Club and Thespians presented several one-act plays during the year. The Drama Club play, "Blithe Spirit," produced Feb. 12 was a highlight of the season. The organization is divided into three troupes and Thespians, which is an honorary society for outstanding dramatists.

Roberta Pratt, Jane Patterson, and Jerry Ponder were officers of Troupe Two.

Taking part in dramatic activities, Pauline Jones, Lisa Ohm, and Sandy Sanderson were Troupe Three officers.

Officers, Frank Venturo and Vernon Close, make plans for a future debate.

Frank Venturo leads a debate at one of the regular meetings.

Debate,

Members of Debate Club learned to argue intelligently by discussing the subject, "What should the policy of the Federal Government be in regard to price supports of 90 percent parity?" Outstanding debaters attended meets in Durango and Boulder, where they rated high in competition. John Sutrina and Galen Coats advised the debaters.

Tom Coit, Nina Rockwood, and Kay Childs locate a place of current interest.

IRC

Students interested in world affairs attended meetings of the International Relations Club and sent members to the State Conference in Denver where Frank Venturo was elected president. The club held its annual carnival and helped sponsor the Western Slope Conference. Faculty advisers were Miss Isabel Benson, John Thome, and Bill Fanning.

Frank Venturo, Ann Hodge, and John Hay, IRC officers, discuss the Middle-East conflict.

ISC,

To promote better relations among students from Grand Junction, Fruita, Central and Palisade, the Inter-School Student Council functioned during the last semester. The council set up a code of conduct, sponsored a dance, and planned exchange assemblies.

Tri-S officers, Peggy Vandenberg, JoAnn Raber and Darlene Dill, relax after a meeting.

Linda Haynie and Jackie Harlan set up a date for the inter-school dance.

Tri-S

Tri-S, an honorary service club for junior and senior girls with at least a B average, had an activity filled year. Sponsored by Miss Reba Wing and Mrs. Martha Barr, the girls ushered at teachers convention last fall and planned the traditional St. Patrick's Day Sock Hop. The coeds sponsored the Christmas assembly also.

Taking over leadership duties of French Club are officers Donna Schubert, Sandy Sanderson, Lyle Chadwick, and Georgina Thomas.

Filmsters

For students really interested in photography, Filmsters offered an excellent opportunity for improvement. Lectures, demonstrations, and movies by professional photographers were regular features at meetings. Mrs. Pat Fink was sponsor.

Officers of Filmsters, Claude Page, Dick Beck, Bob Cutter, and Colin Mitchell, discuss important points of a camera at a club meeting.

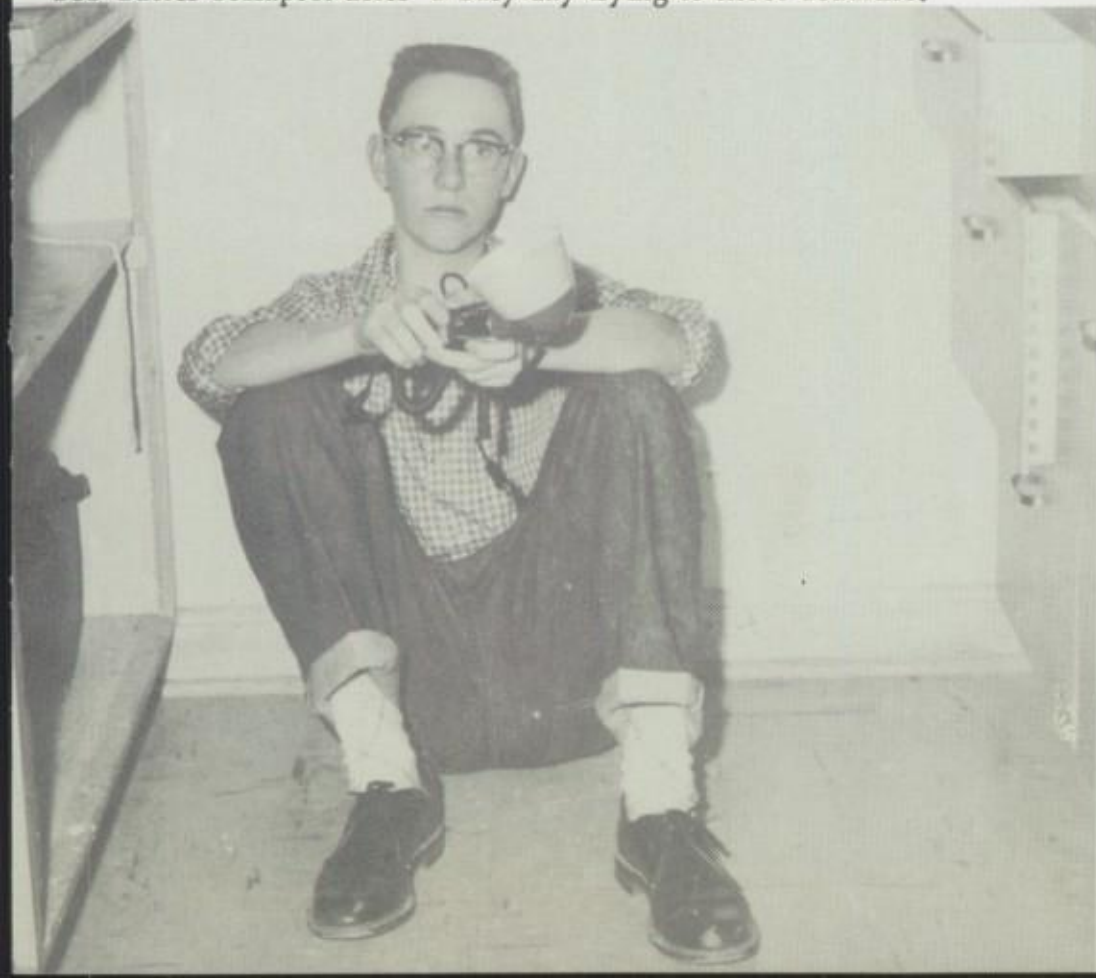

"Joyeux Noel" is sung by members of the French Club.

French Club

Students taking French automatically became members of French Club. The club met bi-weekly to sing French songs; present plays; participate in conversations; and to study the culture of France. Under the sponsorship of Miss Esther Conway, the group held a banquet.

Bob Cutter collapses after a busy day trying to meet deadline.

F. H. A. officers were Jeanetta Austell, district secretary; Anita Youngberg, secretary; Eileen Armstrong, president; and Arlene Gardner, vice president.

Other officers were Dorothy Galvan, historian; Jackie Cochran, song leader; and Clydeen Davis, treasurer.

FHA

Future Homemakers of America furthered the development of creative leadership in home and community life. The club sponsored a dance for all members and their dates, held a cupcake sale, gave a faculty tea, and had other activities. Sponsors of the group, which has national and state affiliation, were Miss Gladys Glendenning and Mrs. Miriam Stewart.

SPQR

Comprised of Latin 111 students, S.P.Q.R. is affiliated with the American Junior Classical League. Sponsored by Miss Winifred Bull, the group studied the arts, customs, and culture of the ancient Romans. The meetings, partly in Latin, were held in class and homeroom. Highlighting the year, the members of Latin Club donned Roman costumes for their Roman Banquet.

Junior Red Cross

Through the Junior Red Cross, G.J.H.S.'ers have been able to serve those less fortunate at home and abroad. The organization sponsored the filling of the eighth school chest for those in war-devastated countries. The various classrooms prepared correspondence albums for exchange with groups abroad. Mrs. Earl Wilcox served as adviser to the group.

Bible Club

Members of the inter-denominational Bible Club had as their aims the development of spiritual life and the furtherance of Christian fellowship. The club sponsored the annual Thanksgiving assembly and met regularly to study and discuss the Bible with Frank Turner and Harold Peterson as advisers.

Glennys Fulford, Emerus Christian, Sammy Smith, and Molly Poole, Bible club officers.

GAA

Including such activities as basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis and others, the Girls Athletic Association stimulated great interest in recreation. The year was highlighted by inter-school playdays, a basketball clinic, a parent picnic, intramurals and a trip to Western State where G.J.H.S. coeds were guests for a play day.

Jim Bays, Jack Sills, Frank Nation, Chris Talbott, and Dick Wells display a book cover sold by the "G" club as a money making project.

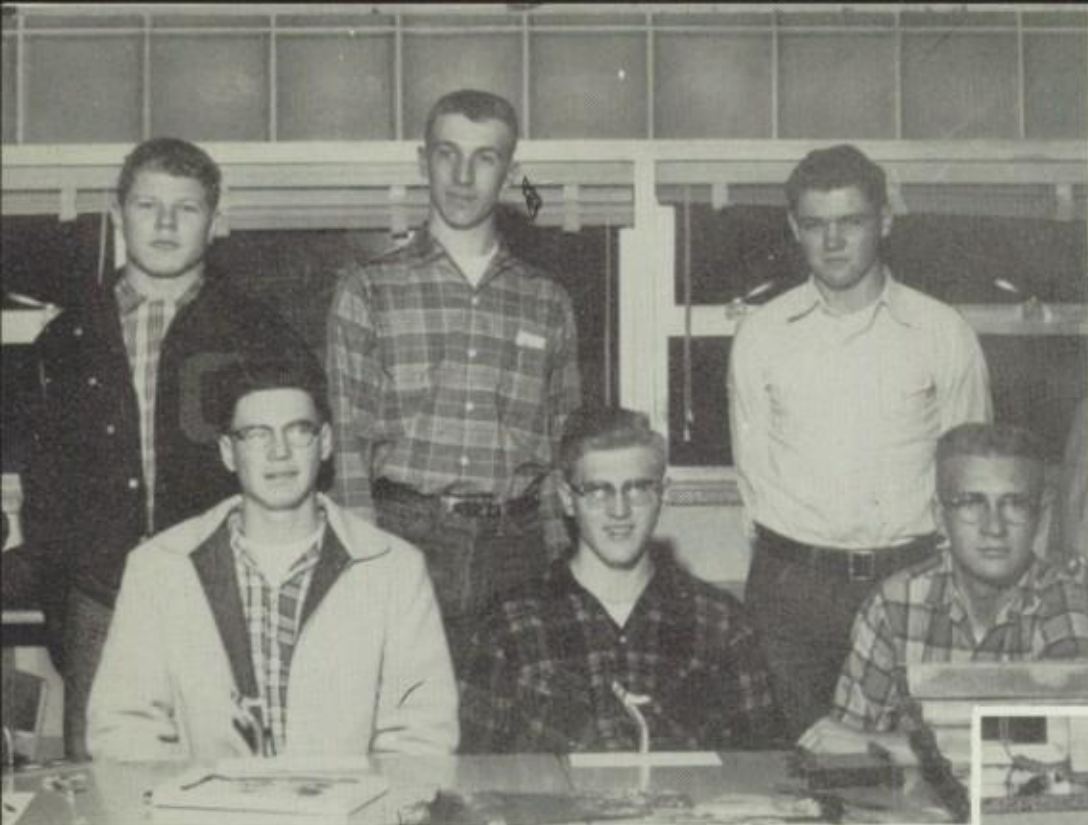

"G" Club

Improving school relations and building school spirit have been two goals of the Tiger lettermen in "G" Club. Sponsored by the coaches, the club held a barbecue honoring the junior high athletes, sold book covers and sponsored a spring "G" Club Dinner Dance.

Heading "G" Club were Ronnie Leitch, Keith Ostrander, and Ron McIntyre.

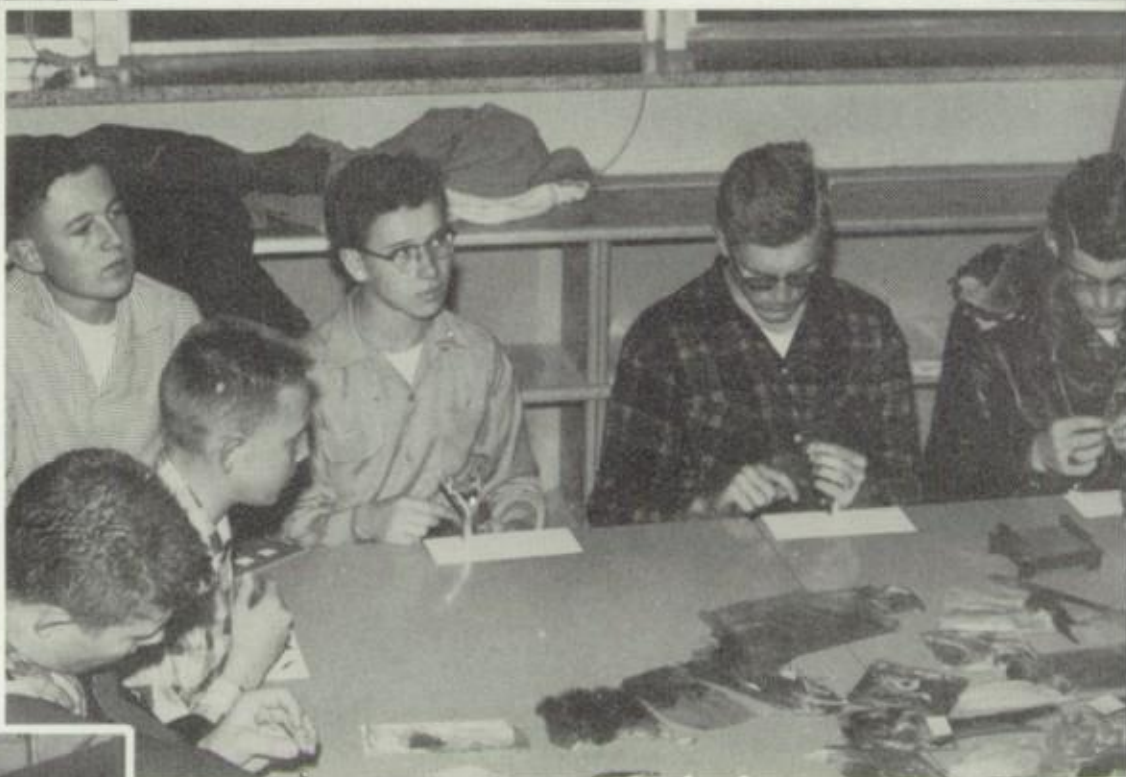

Sportsman's Club officers, Ronald Wilkins, Ed Suedekum, Kent David, Jim Bays, Robert Seibert, and Verne Brenton.

Learning to tie flies is one of the many crafts learned by the sportsmen.

Sportsman's Club

Sportsman's Club was organized for students wishing to take part in the conservation of natural resources. The club made several camping trips, one to Shoshone Lake at Yellowstone Park. They also made flies and arrows for fishing trips. Orville Richards, Galen Coats, and Bruce Palmer sponsored the activities.

Officers for Pebble Pups are Jack Miller, Ruth Reed, and Dick Nutting.

Pebble Pups

Students interested in rocks comprise the membership of the newly organized Pebble Pups. Activities included field trips, cutting and polishing stones, and studying of mineralogy and the geological characteristics of the Western Slope. Donald Govoni, sponsor, also taught members safety and skill in the use of lapidary equipment.

Ruth Reed shows Sarah Schmidt how to sand, buff and polish a rock.

Bruce Palmer gives a group of ski enthusiasts some safety pointers.

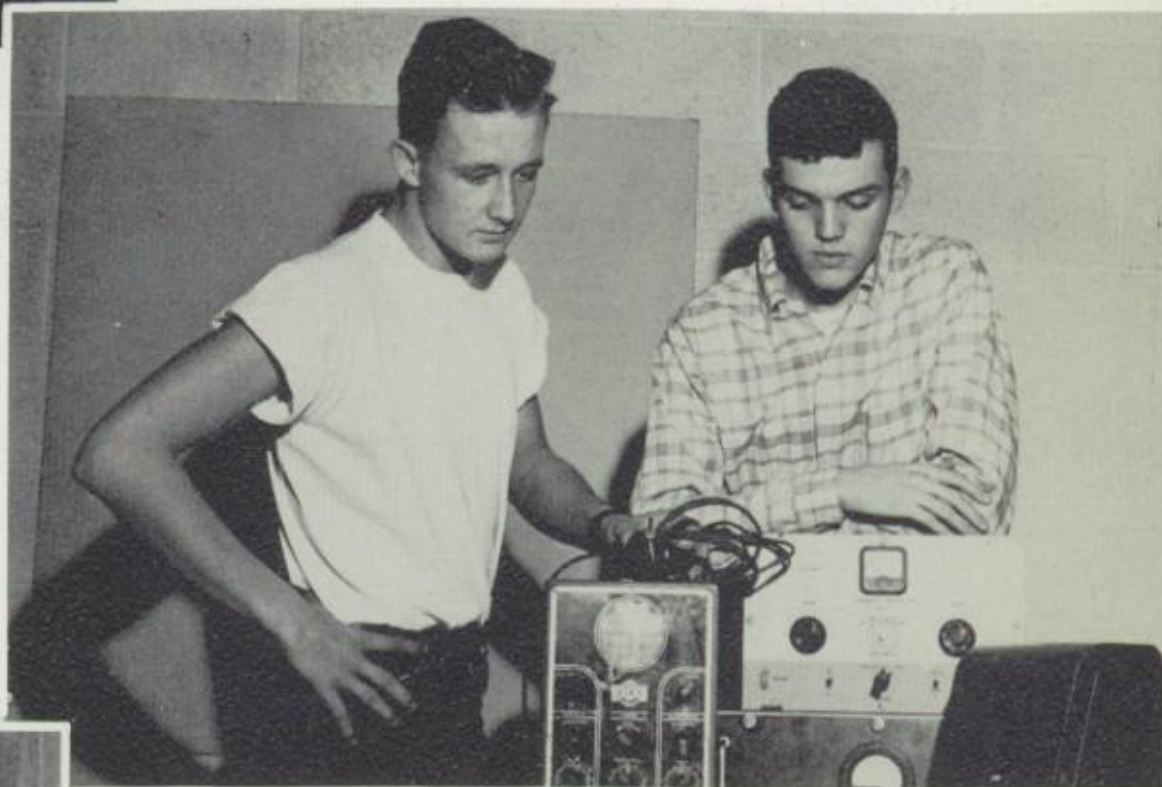

Ski Club

Organized to promote skiing interest and safety among GJHSers the Ski Club met under the guidance of Bruce Palmer. In addition to featuring ski films and technical talks on ski safety at their regular meetings, the group sponsored inter-school races and two dances.

Radio Club

Radio Club, a newly organized group, became an active extra-curricular organization. Under the sponsorship of Delmer Born, the group learned radio theory, construction, repair and federal regulations. Assisted by the adult radio club, most of the members obtained their novice class licenses.

Jerry Thye and David Humphries, Radio Club officers look over some radio equipment.

Sports

Just as dueling with scimitars was a favorite sport of Arabian thieves, tests of strength and skill have continued through the years. Hard play, sportsmanship, and co-operation have built a proud sports record for the Tigers.

Football

Coach Gene Ridenour has proved himself as a football coach since 1954 by developing three of the finest teams in the history of Grand Junction High School. He has had two State Runnerup teams. In the '56 season he trained a Tiger team that was recognized as being the best in the state although it didn't have the opportunity to play in the finals. Coach Ridenour's past athletic record is also impressive. He received recognition as an All-American while playing for Kansas University where he received his masters degree. Before coming to G.J.H.S., Mr. Ridenour coached at Williamsburg, Kansas, one year and at Emporia six years.

Carl Cox, backfield coach, during his eight years at Grand Junction High School has helped to make the Tigers a football power to be reckoned with in the State of Colorado. Graduating from Colorado A & M in three years with a B.A. degree, Coach Cox proved himself not only as a scholar but also as a fine athlete. He played fullback in high school, college and the Navy. While wrestling for the Navy he won the Oklahoma AAU Championship.

Co-Captains Vince Gray and Danny Williams were largely responsible for the fighting spirit of the Tigers during the 1956 gridiron season.

The outstanding forward wall of an outstanding team consisted of Chris Talbott, Butch Bull, Robin Cherp, Jack Sills, and Bill Sterns.

The quarterbacking of Bill Peck and Varsity T-formation expert, Doug Hopton, and the long accurate punting of Dick Davolt sparked the Tigers throughout the season.

Varsity Men

Doug Hopton, wizard quarterback, was elected "the most valuable player" by his teammates. Doug was a quarterback on the Tiger Varsity for three years and merited the All-State selection his senior year. Doug also turned in outstanding defensive performances and was an excellent punt return man.

Many of the Orange and Black's points came through completed passes. On the receiving end were Vic Brown, Lloyd Summers, Leroy Inman, Dick Wells.

Undertaking the kick-off duties for the Tigers was Jim Blair.

Combining speed and knowledge were the first string backs Jim Luke, Ron Leitch, and Ron McIntire.

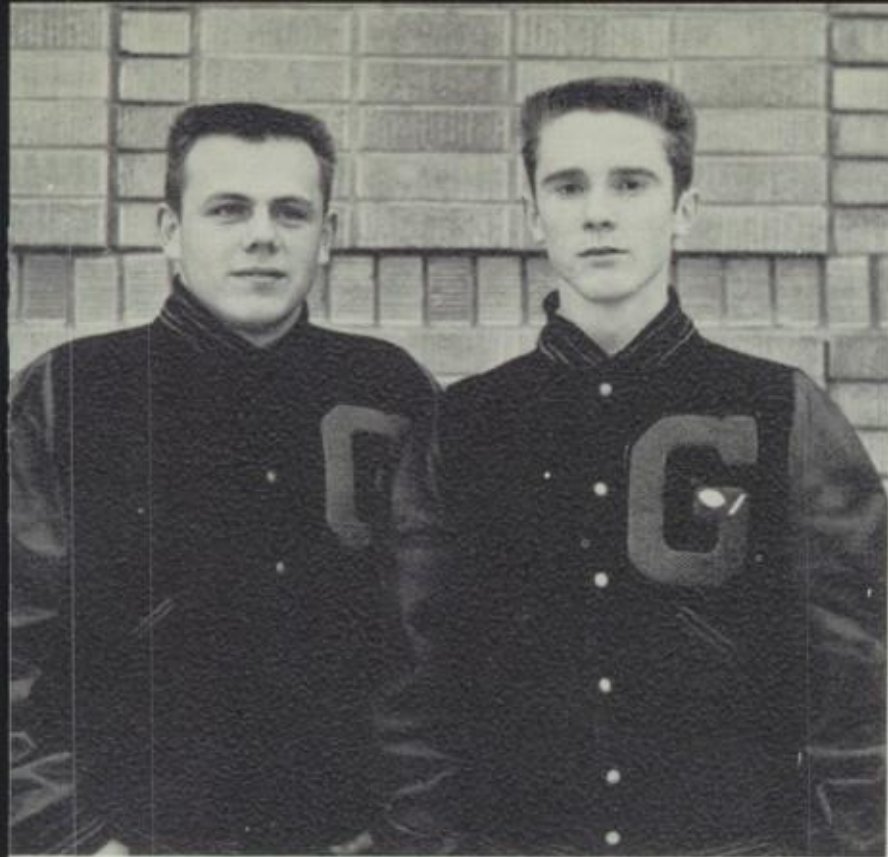

Varsity Men

Robin Cherp, senior center, was elected the "most improved player" by his teammates. He played offensive center and defensive tackle for the Tigers and received the All-State selection for his efforts. Robin transferred from Minnesota to Grand Junction as a sophomore and made the Varsity his junior year.

Second string ends were Chuck Kruse, Roland Hamilton, Dennis Brand, and Joel Hiebert.

Mike Warner, fullback, and Ron Allred, halfback, aided the efforts of the second string and saw defensive action during the year.

The one indispensable member--Emmett Palmer, manager.

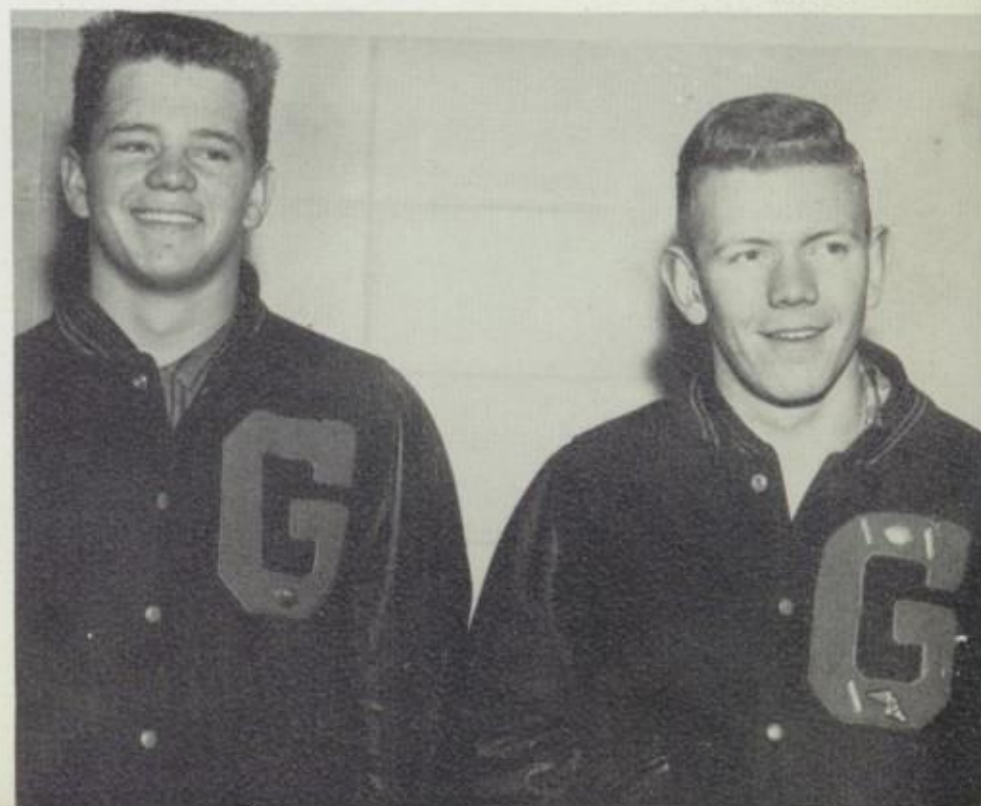

Varsity Men

Butch Bull, senior guard, was elected the player "that most exemplifies the Tiger spirit" by his teammates. Playing offensive guard, Butch was defensive linebacker and captain throughout the year turning in outstanding performances for the Tigers on and off the field. His attitude and ability merited him recognition.

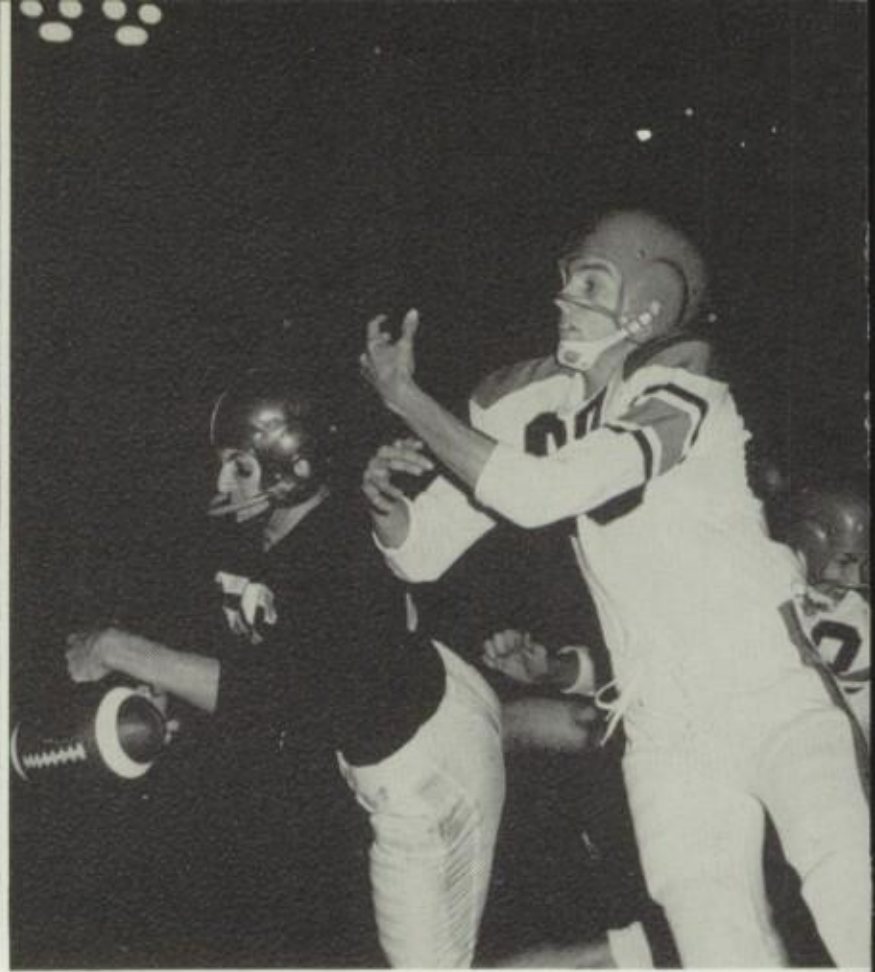

Tom Matlock and Glen Pryor served as second string tackles.

Second string guards were Dick Gorman and Gary Green.

Four smiling centers, Victor Harville, Don Smith, Ed Chadwick and Jim Bays.

Varsity Men

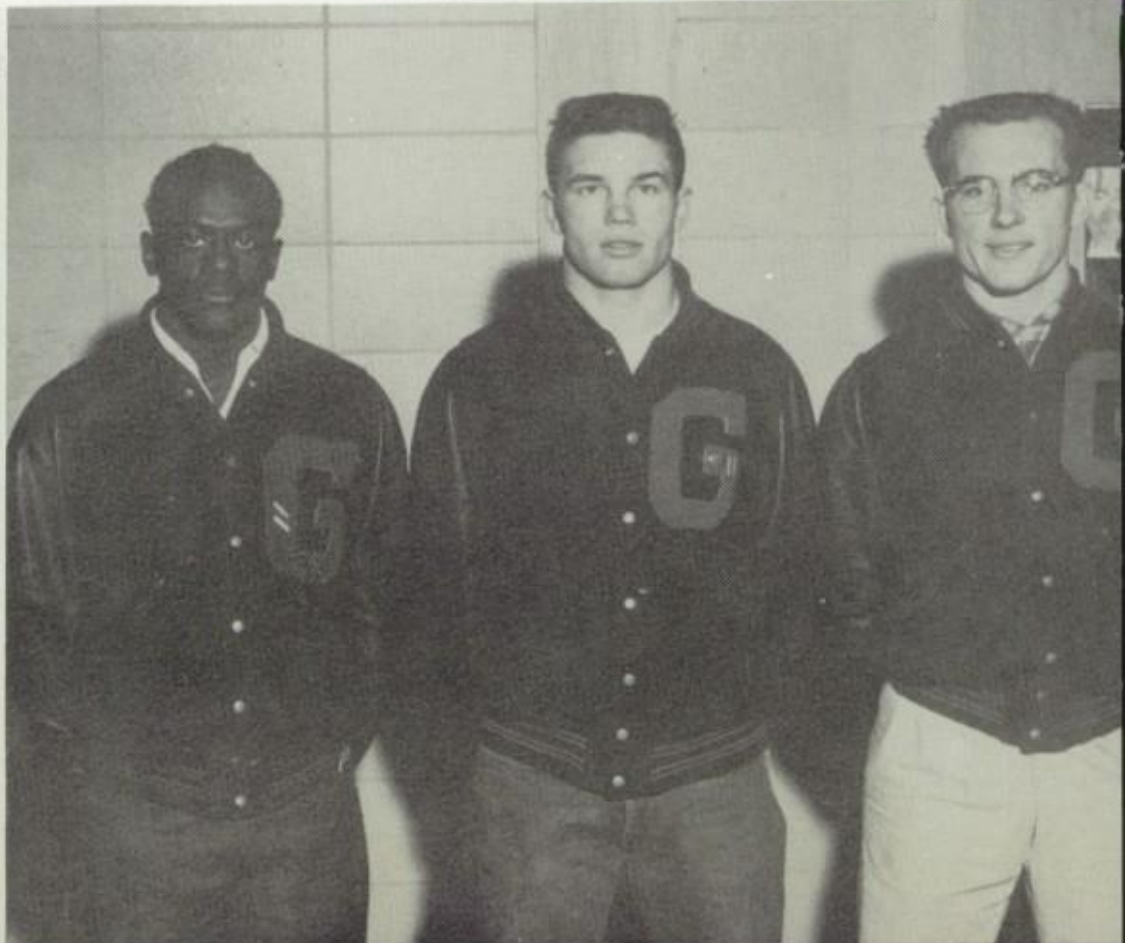

Completing one of the most successful seasons in many years. Coach Gene Ridenour's Tigers boasted a 9 win 1 loss record. Employing the deceptive split T formation the Bengals scored 392 points compared to their opponents 20. In their last eight games the Tigers came to be known as the "Whitewash Squad" scoring 366 points while holding tough opposition scoreless. The second game of the season against the Colorado Springs Terrors, who later won the state championship, was the only loss for the Tigers. The Bengals were not quite ready and dropped the encounter 14-6.

Since Springs did not lose another conference game this proved to be all that kept the Tigers from a state championship. However, they were voted by sports writers and coaches the number one high school team in the state. Twenty-one seniors will be lost by graduation and only 12 junior lettermen will return. The light Tigers averaged only 169 pounds in the line and 150 pounds in the backfield. The team made up for their lack of size, however, by using superior speed and agility along with excellent coaching and fine teamwork.

Galloping Jim Luke carries the mail for a touchdown.

Three speedy halfbacks, Hersey Roberson, Jim Wells and Don Holloway

Mickey Dunn, Junior Varsity coach.

JayVees

Coach Mickey Dunn's Kittens put together a 2 win, 3 loss, 1 tie record for the 1956 grid-season. The Kittens started with a 13-13 tie with Carbondale and proved themselves a football team by beating Cedaredge 7-6. A 49-13 triumph over Collbran was short-lived as the JayVees were knocked off by Hotchkiss 27-14 and downed by Glenwood Springs 35-0. In their last game the JayVees lost to Palisade 20-6. Although the Kitten's record does not seem too impressive, it should be remembered that the coaching staff of G.J.H.S. schedule the varsities of other schools in an effort to get top competition and valuable experience for the JayVees. This gives the JayVees the qualifications needed for a good AAA team.

Bob Johnson, head coach, and Gene Ridenour, assistant.

Basketball

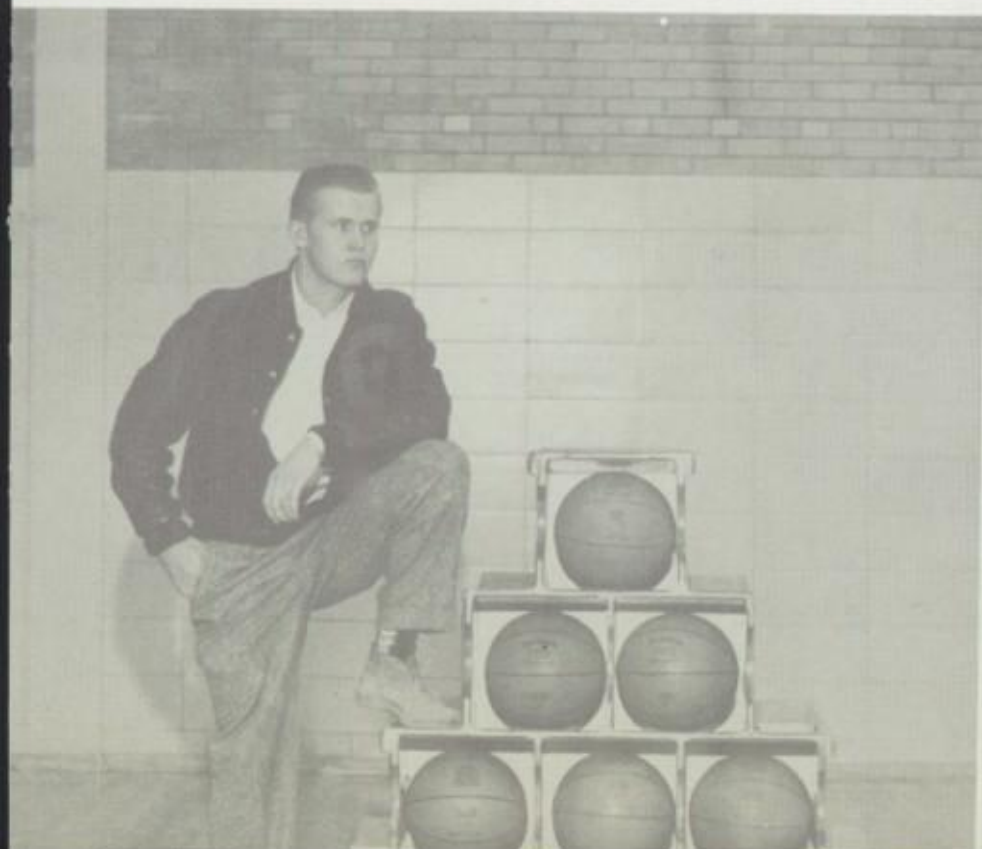

Coach Bob Johnson's Tiger roundballers had a highly successful season which was topped off by a berth in the State AA Basketball Tournament. The team consisted of nine seniors and three juniors with the nucleus being eight lettermen from last years' squad. The Tigers were the champs of the Western Division boasting a record of eight conference wins against no defeats and were second in the South Central League losing a sensational championship game to the highly touted Pueblo Central Wildcats 62-61. In regular season play the Bengals had an impressive 14-6 won-loss record which included a victory over the power of the Denver schools and the Manual Thunderbolts.

Darold Greene, manager, catered to the whims of the team members.

At the State Tournament the Tigers took fourth place, winning one of three games. The first game; a 78-51 loss to the state champions, Greeley; and their second game, a 62-60 victory over Cherry Creek, placed the Bengals in the consolation finals. Here Lakewood squeezed by the Tigers 73-70 in a close game to the final gun for the third place trophy.

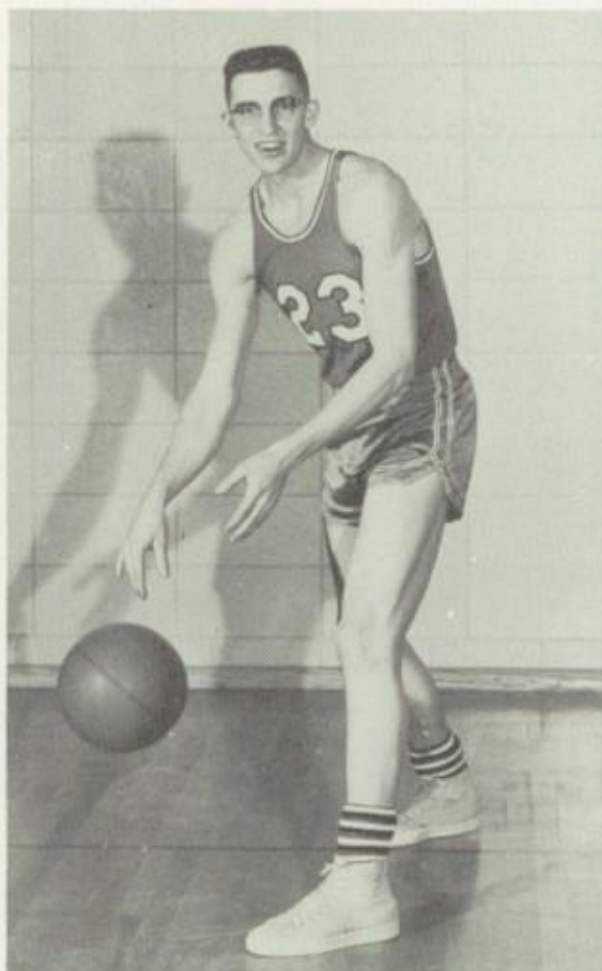

The lettermen are Lyle Chadwick, Vic Brown, Doug Hopton, Dick Wells, Ron McIntire, Keith Ostrander, Larry Roper and Glen Pryor.

JayVees

Playing many "B" and "C" class high schools "A" squads, Coach Gene Ridenour's Junior Varsity completed its season with a 15-won 1-loss record. Their only defeat was to the Carbondale Bulldogs by a three point margin. Composed entirely of sophomores and juniors, many JayVees are expected to be varsity letterman next year. In more than one intersquad game these "rinks" gave the "A" team a good go.

"B" Squad

Coach Bill Fanning's "B" squad composed of 14 sophomores, completed the season with a 5-won 3-loss record. Coach Fanning stressed ball handling and the fundamentals of basketball on both offense and defense. The boys showed improvement the latter part of the season, particularly Jim Pennington and Keith Fowler, who were elevated to the Junior Varsity. The "B" team squeezed their practice periods between those of the "A" and JayVee groups.

Church League

With eighteen teams participating, the "A" and "B" Church Leagues replaced the high school winter intra-mural program. Competing for top honors in the "A" League were Presbyterian, Methodist, and LDS. Heading the "B" League were St. Joseph, First Southern Baptist, and Faith Baptist.

Carl Cox, head coach, and Don Govoni, assistant.

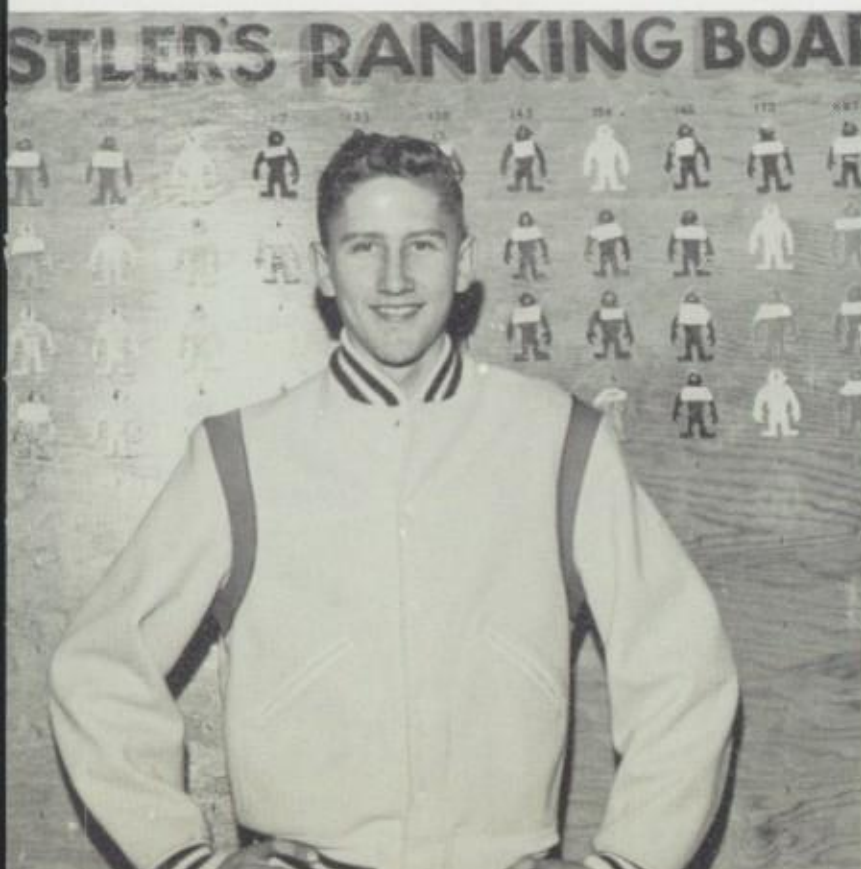

Wrestling

Coach Carl Cox's grapplers turned in a glowing record of 13 wins and 1 loss in 14 dual meets. They won the Western Slope Conference Tournament. Eight boys qualified for state competition at the conference meet, and Claude Gonzales, sophomore, walked off with the state championship in the 103 pound class. Richard Peterson and Tom Matlock placed fourth in the state. Jim Bays, heavy-weight and Claude Gonzales won the title of Western Slope champions. Pointwise for the season Tom Matlock was the big gun for the Tigers with 52, Ron Lease, received second honors for his 49 points and Claude Gonzales was next with 48 points. Elroy Rooks was recognized by the Varsity squad as being the most improved "B" Squad wrestler, and Tom Matlock received the scoring honors.

In the three years that Coach Cox has held the title of head coach, he has produced two state champions, won the South Central League championship and the Western Slope championship, coached 10 wrestlers to a position in the state tournament, and won 31 of a possible 36 dual meets.

JayVees

Don Govoni's second year of "B" squad coaching brought the JayVees through two years of tough competition undefeated. Culminating the 13-dual meet schedule the Kittens humiliated Delta's "A" team by a 24-22 count even though they were forced to forfeit the 175 lb. class for lack of a participant. Coach Govoni's big job is to start from scratch with the underclassmen and give them some wrestling experience and background preparatory to Varsity competition. Coach is well qualified to fill this position as he has won a number of titles in the wrestling field. Elray Rooks was selected by the "A" squad as being the most improved "B" squad wrestler. Coach names the following boys as doing especially well and showing lots of potential: Ralph Belcastro, Gary Carlson, Terry Boggs, Ronnie Arellano, and Frank Quintana, sophomores; Earl Weimer, Elray Rooks, Dean Kille, Ronnie Johnson, John Petek, juniors; and Vernon Close, senior.

Keeping G. J. H. S. 'ers posted, the wrestling bulletin board was kept up to date from week to week.

Baseball

'With only seven returning lettermen Bill Fanning, head coach, and Don Govoni, assistant coach, prepared for the spring baseball program. The seven were Captain Keith Ostrander, infield-outfield; Doug Hopton, infield; Vic Brown, outfield-infield; Lloyd Summers, infield; Darold Greene, pitcher; Chris Talbott, catcher; and Lyle Chadwick, pitcher-outfield. Rounding out the fifteen man Varsity squad were Davy Jones, Tom Coit, Bob Ingram, infielders; Robin Cherp, Carl Forstrom, outfielders. Dick Davolt, Ed Chadwick, and Byrne Stephenson, pitchers.

The Bengals had 11 games scheduled on their regular season which was highlighted by a three game series with the South Denver Rebels.

These returning lettermen formed the base for the '57 Tigers.

Keith Ostrander led the Bengals as team captain.

Returning trackmen, Jim Blair, Jack Sills, Glen Pryor, and Ron Leitch, supported the efforts of the Orange and Black.

Completing the list of returning track and field men were Leroy Inman, Lyle Chadwick, and Mike Dunn.

Track

Sixty-five aspirants took to the cinder paths March 4 under the watchful eye of Mickey Dunn, head track coach. Track is taking on new import as Grand Junction High School's 1956 team ran away with every meet except the State Tournament where they placed seventh. New records were set by last year's team in the high jump, the 220 yard dash and the high and low hurdles.

Jack Sills, one of the eight returning lettermen, tied for first place in the high jump event at the State Tournament. The 1957 track season included the Mesa and Delta Invitationals, Districe 51, Aggies, Conference and State meets.

Mickey Dunn, head coach.

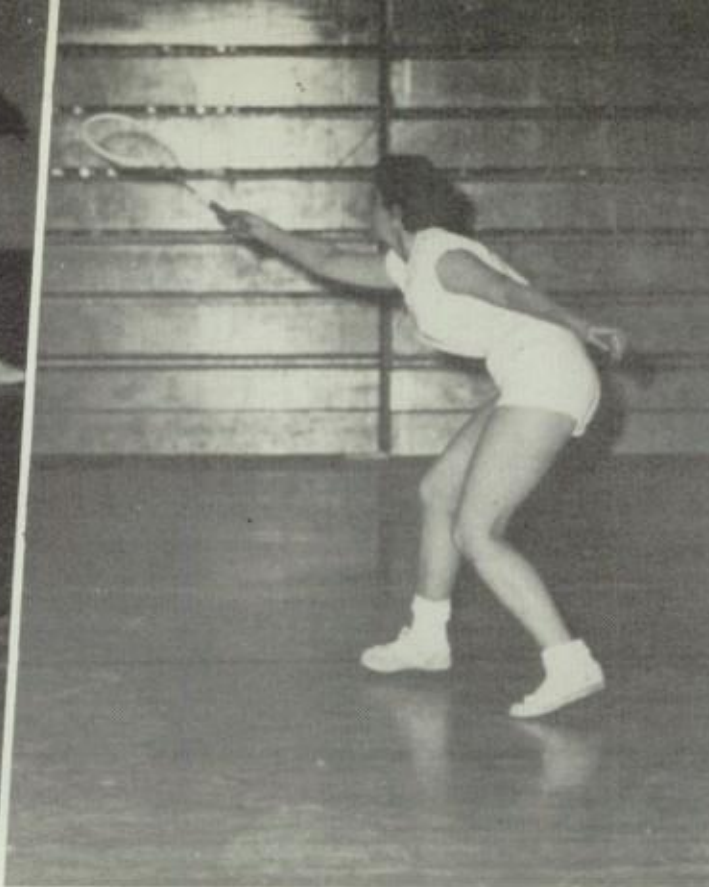

Jack Sills, holder of school record in the high jump, bolstered the track team as returning state champ in this event.

Badminton supplied team competition in the intramural program.

Two Tigers set out for an after school game of horseshoe.

Intra-Mural

To provide an opportunity for more students to take part in athletics, the physical education department conducted a fall and spring intramural program. Shuffleboard, ping-pong, archery, volleyball, hand ball, baseball, tennis, golf, and other sport activities were available to all interested G.H.J.S.'ers. New this year, the program was directed by Coach Bob Johnson.

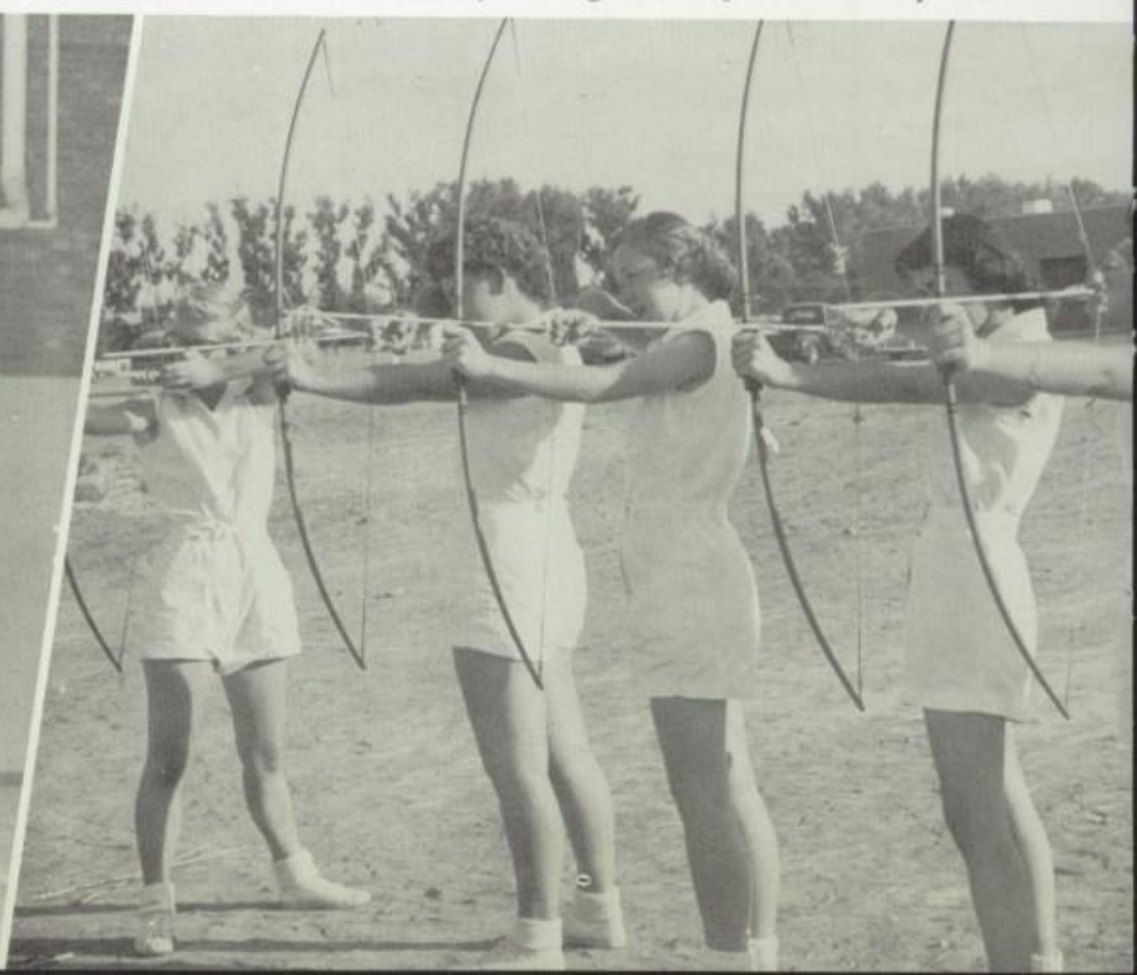

Volleyball gave coeds a chance for sports activity.

Position and form played a significant part in archery.

Shuffleboard provided indoor recreation for fall and spring.
